

Are there any famous Murrays?

• from JUST on page 10

named their dog Murray.

And what famous person was ever named Murray?

I can't think of any, except for Murray the K, and he's so famous I don't even know what he did.

I think he was involved with the Beatles.

Murray is one of those names doomed to extinction, anyway.

I've never heard of anybody younger than me with that name. I've only known a couple people anywhere with the same name.

Oddly, one lived beside me when I was growing up, and the other currently lives on the other side of that same house. Three Murrays in a row. Wow.

Then there's the Murray who lived beside my in-laws when he was alive. He had the same last name as me.

Nobody much ever called me Murray, anyway, especially when I was growing up.

It was or is Mur, Merv, Maury, Murdock or Dumb Ass to name a few.

Have you ever noticed that people usually will shorten your name if it's more than one syllable and lengthen it if it's one? Brian for example, would be shortened to Bri, and Gord would be lengthened to Gordo, even though the long version of Gord is Gordon.

I like the names my ex-wife and I picked out for our kids, Holly and Heather.

Oddly, I heard of someone else, who lived on my street when I was growing up, who also had two daughters, and named them Holly and Heather.

If I were to change my name, I'd go with Tiger. Tiger Townsend. Now, that's a name.

Tiger Woods's real first name is Eldridge, incidentally, which may help explain why he doesn't use it.

But, I guess I can live with the name, Murray. I have all my life.

Well, that along with Bob, Roy, Maury, and now, Tiger.

Doctor recruiter hired for Halton

Physician recruitment in Halton recently took a step forward with the hiring of a physician recruitment coordinator.

Angela Sugden Praysner began her two-year contract with the Region Wednesday. Among her duties are to work with local committees and hospitals to develop plans to attract and retain physicians.

"Ms. Sugden Praysner has many years of experience in community development and recruitment to bring to the table in this important initiative," said Regional CAO Brent Marshall in a press release.

For the past nine years, Ms Sugden Praysner has been an employee of Halton's Business Development Centre.

IT DOESN'T MATTER WHAT YOU BELIEVE! DOES IT?

Don't all religions lead to the same place? Aren't we all seeing the same ultimate reality, just from a different point of view? Don't all religions lead to the same God anyway?

We hear these statements all the time. The truth is, it does matter what you believe and there are some pretty big differences among various religions. They radically disagree about what God is like, and what you think God is like will deeply affect how you live.

Mother Teresa is a good example of this. When she saw the poor and dying in Calcutta, she had to do something. She believed in a God who cares about the poor. Jesus spent most of his life healing and teaching and caring for the poor. So Mother Teresa's view of God led her to start a shelter in the shadow of a Temple. She then took in the dying to comfort and love them in their last hours. She embraced those who were considered untouchable by most. Her commitment to a compassionate God who loves the poor led her to a very different response to that of the culture around her, who saw God's judgment upon the sick and the suffering.

It does matter what you believe about God. We don't all end up at the same place.

There was never a more perfect expression of God than Jesus. The Bible says that if you have seen Jesus, you have seen the Father. "For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him (Jesus)" Col. 1:19. You will never see a cleaner picture of God the Father, than when you study the biblical Son, Jesus.

It does matter what you believe about God. Jesus is the key. We don't all end up at the same place.

If you have any doubts left, September 11th demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt that what you believe about God is important. On that day, several people, because of their image of God, planned, prepared and perpetrated the murder of thousands of innocent victims and terrorized a nation because of who they believed their God to be.

What you believe about God is very important. We don't all take the same path and end up at the same decision. There is a big difference.

Look for the truth. Visit one of Milton's great Christian Churches this weekend!
