A Mississauga woman suffered non-life threatening injuries after her Honda Civic was struck by a tow truck at the corner of Trafalgar and Derry roads Monday.

Halton police's regional traffic unit, the Milton Fire Department and ambulance personnel were called to Trafalgar Road, in front of Van Dongen's Tree Farm, at about 11:50 a.m.

According to police, the driver of the Honda was attempting to exit the parking lot of the tree farm when she was t-boned by the tow truck.

A transport truck parked on the shoulder of the road might have obstructed her view of on-coming traffic, police said.

Driver trapped in vehicle

It took firefighters about 30 minutes to free the trapped woman, who was conscious.

The driver's side of the Honda received substantial damage to the windshield and door. The car's airbag was also deflated.

Jo-Tzu Wang, 23, was taken to Milton District Hospital and later transferred to Hamilton General Hospital, where she was listed in good condition at press time yesterday.

The driver of the tow truck, Steven Lewis, 27, of Cambridge, wasn't hurt.

Police say charges are pending.

Trafalgar Road was closed for about an hour while police investigated.
