Burlington's Kate Psota — a right fielder for the Ontario women's hardball squad — gets tagged out by Miltonian Liam Tennant of the Halton Athletic Club (HAC) Under-18 baseball team during an exhibition showdown at Oakville's Ninth Line Ball Park Tuesday evening. HAC won the contest 17-6. It was a tune-up for HAC team's two-week home stand — which includes back-to-back tournaments in Oakville this weekend and next. Also part of HAC are Miltonians Andrew Pepper, Jake Perrott, Nick Mazzorato and Josh Wageman.

Couple of area tournaments coming up for HAC squad

The Halton Athletic Club (HAC) Under-18 baseball team will look to capture its second straight Halton Wood Bat tournament championship this weekend at Oakville's Ninth Line Ball Park.

And five Milton players will be lending their services to the title defense. Joining veteran infielder Liam Tennant on this year's squad are Andrew Pepper, Jake Perrott, Nick Mazzorato and Josh Wageman.

The Milton five — all infielders — will attempt to turn back challenges from a handful of opponents on both sides of the border during the weekend showcase.

HAC took top honours at last year's inaugural tournament by winning six of seven games, punctuating the championship drive with a 5-1 victory over the Ontario Falcons.

Tennant had five hits during the weekend and hopes to enjoy similar plate pop this time around.

He and Pepper platoon at shortstop while doing likewise at third base are Perrott and Wageman. Mazzorato meanwhile, is part of the team's catching tandem.

They enjoyed a solid tune-up outing against the Ontario junior women's hardball team at Ninth Line Tuesday night — winning the exhibition tilt 17-6.

HAC will close out a two-week home stand next weekend during the Franklin Cup in Oakville.

Under-18 Magic reclaim second with close victory

Milton's Under-18 girls soccer team pushed itself into a tie for second place by downing hosts Erin Mills 2-1 July 25.

The two teams — now deadlocked behind front-running Waterloo — headed into the second half in the scoreless stalemate when the visitors dented the twine 10 minutes apart en route to victory.

Amy DiPalma and Amanda Kiuper made the deposits, capping set-ups by the other with impressive headers. Their goals gave Milton its second straight win against Erin Mills.

Between the pipes for the win — the Sargent Farms Magic's sixth in nine regular-season outings — was Davida Denich.

She enjoyed exceptional defensive support from Erica Ercolani, Erin Grevstead, Ashley Grant, Krista Lenardon and Heather Moon.

Erin Mills spoiled their guests' shutout bid with about five minutes remaining.

"The defense really shut down their opportunities," said head coach Louie DiPalma.

Heading into last night's home-field showdown against Mount Hamilton, Milton sat four points out of top spot in the SRSL's Elite Division. The Magic will be back in League Cup play August 17 in Hamilton for a second-round clash with Waterloo.
