Sam Sherratt students get in gear for Terry

Approximately 380 students from grades 1 to 8 at Sam Sherratt School took part in a walk for Terry Fox Tuesday, and raised $534 for cancer research. The school is challenging walkers, runners, cyclists and in-line skaters to raise as much money as possible during the final days before Sunday's Terry Fox Run, which locally will be held at E.C. Drury High School. Here, students (from left) Bradley Walker, Brendan Whiting, Matt Doering and Ryan Liske hold up a jar filled with the rolled up toonies collected from the school's walk.
