

Ready and waiting

Katie Patterson, Milton's 2002 Fall Fair Ambassador, can't wait to hand out ribbons to the winning entries at the 149th Milton Fall Fair this weekend. The fair, presented by the Halton Agricultural Society, will take place, as usual, at the Milton Fair Grounds. The fun begins this morning with school tours followed by the public opening at 3 p.m. Admission to the grounds costs $7 for adults and $3 for children aged 6 to 12 years. Children under 3 years of age are admitted free.

Crew shooting TV movie downtown

The stars are back in Milton. Filming for the cable feature Deacons for Defense began Monday in Victoria Park and continued Tuesday. The movie stars Forrest Whittaker (Panic Room, Crying Game) and Jonathan Silverman (The Single Guy, The Odd Couple, Weekend at Bernie's) in a 1960's drama about segregation in the southern U.S. Filming will continue October 4, 7, 8, 9 and 10 on Sarah Street. Deacons for Defense, produced by U.S. company Deacons Productions Ltd., will be televised on Showtime Network in the United States sometime next year.
