AA midgets start season with high-scoring victory

Milton's AA midgets kicked off regular season play in high octane fashion — outlasting Flamborough 7-4 Monday night at Memorial Arena.

Fueled by a home-opening hat-trick by Tim Anderson, Arnie Parcels' Winterhawks overcame a few anxious moments down the stretch to prevail.

"I thought it was scrumbly at best, basically what you'd expect from hockey in September. It's no different than anybody else," said Parcels, who's got eight players back from last year's OMHA championship squad.

Kyle Goertz — Milton's standout goaltender during the successful title drive this past spring — was steady between the pipes and turned back 26 shots for the win.

Flamborough drew within a goal twice in the final frame before being vanquished. The teams traded powerplay goals in the first, while the hosts led 3-1 after the second. Chris Coates and Rob Wilson each had a goal and an assist while standing out with three assists was Adam Rutz.

Mark Galick and David Tielemans drew two helpers apiece and chipping in with the other goals were Barry Kosmalski and James MacIntosh.

With Goertz in net and a talented mix of returnees and players from both last season's A midgets and AA bantams — who reached the OMHA semis — this year's squad seems capable of remaining a force in Tri County's Bowen Division.

The key now, according to Parcels, is to develop some chemistry and character. "I think they have the potential (to fare well)," he said.

Milton is back at home Monday night to face St. Catharines. Game time, as always, is 9:15 p.m.

AA minor atoms earn revenge

Milton's AA minor atoms exacted revenge for an exhibition loss by edging the Caledon Hawks 4-3 Sunday afternoon at Memorial Arena.

The Winterhawks overcame a punchless powerplay early on and a one-goal deficit, suffered in the last two seconds of the opening frame.

Sean McGovern notched the game-winner on a picturesque breakaway. Derek Dercatch and Luke Kimmerer covered rebounds in the second period while also denting the twine on a nifty solo effort was James Hart.

Kevin Thomson assisted on goals one and two while single helpers went to Hart and Brady Ryml. Brandon Bodium was rock solid between the pipes for the win.
