Woman gets ticket in downtown crash

A 78-year-old Milton woman has been issued a $110 ticket for running a red light in connection with the accident at Main and Martin streets September 13.

A Toyota Camry travelling eastbound on Main Street failed to stop for the light and struck a 73-year-old woman who was crossing the intersection. She was knocked to the ground and suffered head injuries.

The car then slammed into the wall of Quality Greens, injuring a deli worker inside the store.

Halton Regional Police said the driver attempted to stop at the light, but her foot slipped off the brake and onto the gas pedal.
