Bateman at Harrop Art Gallery for show and sale tomorrow night

Public can meet renowned wildlife artist from 7 to 9 p.m.

The public will have the opportunity to meet renowned wildlife artist Robert Bateman at the Harrop Art Gallery and Framing Warehouse tomorrow from 7 to 9 p.m.

The gallery, located at 345 Steeles Ave., will feature an Art Show and Sale of Mr. Bateman's work until October 27.

His older and newer work will be available for sale, including 'New Territory - Black Wolf' and 'Loon Gathering at Big East'.

His new book, Birds, will also be available for purchase.

The 176-page hard cover book contains 200 colour plates plus black and white sketches.

"We've handled his work for about 20 years," said gallery director Chris Turk. "The focus of the showing will be his new book, Birds. We have an excellent selection of his work and everything is available for purchase."

Individuals wishing to meet the artist are asked to RSVP the gallery by calling (905) 878-8161, ext. 1.

LOVE SETS A CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY APART

Often, personal friends or congregation members send their Pastors inspirational e-mails intent on motivating them or fortifying their spirits. The following account provided encouragement to a local Pastor:

My mother used to ask me what is the most important part of the body. Through the years I would take a guess at what I thought was the correct answer. When I was younger, I thought sound was very important to everybody, so it must be our eyes."

She looked at me and told me, "You are learning fast, but the answer is not correct because there are many people who are blind."

Stumped again, I continued my quest for knowledge and over the years, Mother asked me a couple more times and always her answer was, "No. But you are getting smarter every year, my child!"

Then last year, my grandpa died. Everybody was hurt. Everybody was crying. Even my father cried. I remember that especially because it was only the second time I saw him cry. My Mom looked at me when it was our turn to say our final good-bye to Grandpa. She asked me, "Do you know the most important body part yet, my dear?"

I was shocked when she asked me this now. I always thought this was a game between her and me. She saw the confusion on my face and told me, "This question is very important. It shows that you have really lived in your life. For every body part you gave me in the past, I have told you were wrong and I have given you an example why. But today is the day you need to learn this important lesson."

She looked down at me as only a mother can. I saw her eyes well up with tears. She said, "My dear, the most important body part is your shoulder."

I asked, "Is it because it holds up my head?"

She replied, "No, it is because it can hold the head of a friend or a loved one when they cry. Everybody needs a shoulder to cry on sometime in life, my dear. I only hope that you have enough love and friends that you will always have a shoulder to cry on when you need it."

Then and there I knew the most important body part is not a selfish one. It is sympathetic to the pain of others.

People will forget what you said... People will forget what you did... but people will never forget the shoulder they are given to cry upon and the way you made them feel.

Christian communities are characterized by love. Jesus Christ wisely stated that it was love that would distinguish individuals as His disciples. To learn more about loving your neighbour, visit a local church this week. Service times and locations are located in the Religious Directory below.
