Sports Shorts

Milton CASCAR driver Howie Scannell seemed poised to deliver his finest feature performance of the season after taking second in the qualifying race at last weekend's Great Canadian 300 at Delaware Speedway.

But early success didn't carry through to the main event, as the local driver finished a somewhat disappointing 16th in the season-ending event.

He did top the list of local finishers — which included Campbellville's Robin Buck placing 22nd and fellow Miltonian Rob Neely, who also had a top-10 qualifying effort, coming in 31st. Milton's Scott Watkins was 14th in qualifying action but failed to finish the main event.

Greenfield cracks top-10

Bishop Reding Secondary School's Jamie Greenfield delivered an impressive sixth-place finish among 145 midget girl runners at Monday's Westmount Invitational Cross Country Meet in Hamilton.

Torin Doppelt, Cory Hageman, Chris Beaulieu and Tim Mohr joined forces to give the Royals a third-place team showing in the senior boys division. Doppelt was the top BR finisher in the class, while other credible efforts for the Royals were turned in by Tara Wood, Michelle Doell, Tim VanBaars and Max Fincham.

BR runners will continue tuning up for the Halton/GHAC finals in Hamilton at Tuesday's Cardinal Carter Invitational.
