Police need help to solve break-in

Halton Regional Police in Milton are seeking information leading to those responsible for a break-in to a Kelso Conservation Area storage shed.

Sometime overnight August 15, thieves tore apart the walls of the 'Beach House' storage shed. Once inside the shed, they made off with seven wet suits and two bouys.

The wetsuits taken were manufactured by Bare, Jobe and O'Neil. The bouys were made by Torpedo. The total loss is estimated at $1,900.
