Volunteers working hard to put on pageant

The Nativity is coming to Milton. Country Heritage Park will be transformed into Bethlehem in Bible times December 6 to 9 for the 'On the Way to Bethlehem' Christmas Nativity Pageant. The play will take place each night from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Ten different scenes and more than 80 actors will depict Mary and Joseph's journey to Bethlehem and the birth of Jesus Christ. Visitors will walk through the scenes and interact with the characters as they proceed.

"One morning I woke up with this rather vague concept for a Nativity Pageant," said Dr. Andrea Rowbottom, brainchild of the pageant. "However, everything came together for me when I visited Country Heritage Park and saw the perfect locations for the scenes I had in my mind." Numerous volunteers have been busy designing costumes and crops, she added. "Our production will have lots of music. The angel choir will be made up of young women from different churches. A five to six member choir will accompany the little drummer boy at the manger, a chapel choir will provide musical enjoyment while a mass choir will sing from the balcony of the Gambrel Barn." The event is free, however a goodwill offering will be accepted.
