

Jr. 'Stangs win again

Milton District's junior football team won its second straight game in convincing fashion Wednesday — rallying from a scoreless opening half to dump White Oaks 22-6.

Nic Cheeseman stood out with touchdown passes to Jesse Roshette and Ryan Mitchell, who reached the end-zone in the final minute of play to add insult to injury, and a couple of two-point converts.

Anthony Perruzza scored the other TD.

The Mustangs — who've turned the corner after three straight shutout losses — close out the regular season at home against T.A. Blakelock Wednesday.

One champ to another

Heavyweight champion Lennox Lewis playfully spars with Hall of Fame jockey Sandy Hawley at the post position draw for tomorrow night's Breeders Crown — billed as the Super Bowl of harness racing — at Woodbine Racetrack. Local drivers Chris Christoforou and Steve Condren will have seven and four drives respectively on the night while local trainer Ben Wallace will send Totally Western to post in the $943,809 two-year-old colt pace.

Semi-pro locals off to good start

Darren (Mini) Haydar marked his American Hockey League (AHL) debut with three assists to power the Milwaukee Admirals' 6-2 win over the San Antonio Rampage Saturday night.

Ingratiating himself to a home-opening crowd at the Bradley Centre, Milton's most prolific scorer set up goals one, two and six in the victory.

He finished the game a plus 2.

Among goals the Hobey Baker Award finalist assisted on was the first in 36 AHL games by resident tough guy Mitch Fritz.

Haydar's prosperous regular season start followed a strong exhibition campaign in which he had a handful of goals in three games — all ending in victory for Milwaukee.

The Admirals seem ready to improve on last year's meager two-and-a-half goals a game average, which essentially kept them out of the playoffs. They close out a two-game homestand tonight at the Cleveland Barons.

Milton fans will have an opportunity to see Haydar play close to home in early January, when Milwaukee has a two-game stand at Hamilton's Copps Coliseum.

Meanwhile, fellow Miltonian Scott Bertoli had a productive regular season start in the semi-pro ranks as well.

The East Coast Hockey League (ECHL) veteran tallied twice in the first round last Friday to help his Trenton Titans knock off the Richmond Renegades 4-3. He also picked up an assist in Saturday's 3-2 loss to the Roanoke Express.

Trenton closed out a busy first weekend by toppling the Reading Royals 7-3 Sunday.

Bertoli's Titans are back in action tonight against Reading.
