

Holmes on stage since age of 10

over Ontario."

Nowadays, Ms Holmes is getting set to perform her own show, Forever Patsy, which debuts tonight at the Hamilton Studio Theatre.

"I'm a little nervous," the mother of three admitted. "But I enjoy performing. I do it for the love of music and the love of people."

Ms Holmes, who now resides in Burlington, will be the first to admit it took a while to get used to performing as the late singer.

"I used to sing karaoke as Bette Midler, Barbra Streisand and Tina Turner. I didn't want my voice to always sound like Patsy Cline. Now I enjoy it and this is my tribute to her. She was incredible for her time."

Perhaps the reason Ms Holmes feels comfortable in front of an audience is because she's been on stage since age 10.

After studying at the Italia Conti Stage School in London, England, she appeared on various television shows and also performed at the Atlantic National Exhibition.

In 2001, she performed at the Woodstock Summer Games as herself.

Ms Holmes will appear November 9 at the Royal Canadian Navy Association in Burlington in a tribute show with a Garth Brooks tribute artist, singer Happy Johnson and Flashback, a Jerry Lee Lewis tribute band.
