Martindale Gardens may get a tax break

Builders of Martindale Gardens on Martin Street, Milton Millennium Community Residences, may get a five-year reprieve from Town development charges.

Milton's administration and planning committee approved the deferred payment Monday.

Under the payment deferral agreement, the Town will receive interest on the deferred charges, as well as a $350 administration fee.

Town council has yet to address the issue, but is expected to do so Monday.

Firefighters take truck under wing

The Milton Fire Department is looking to add another vintage truck to its parade and special event arsenal.

Milton's administration and planning committee endorsed a recommendation Monday that will see a second vehicle — a 1946 Fargo Fire Truck — maintained by the Milton Part Time Firefighters Association. Firefighters currently maintain a 1922 International Fire Truck for a variety of community-oriented uses — for which the Town pays insurance.

Milton council hasn't taken a position on the matter, but is expected to address it Monday.

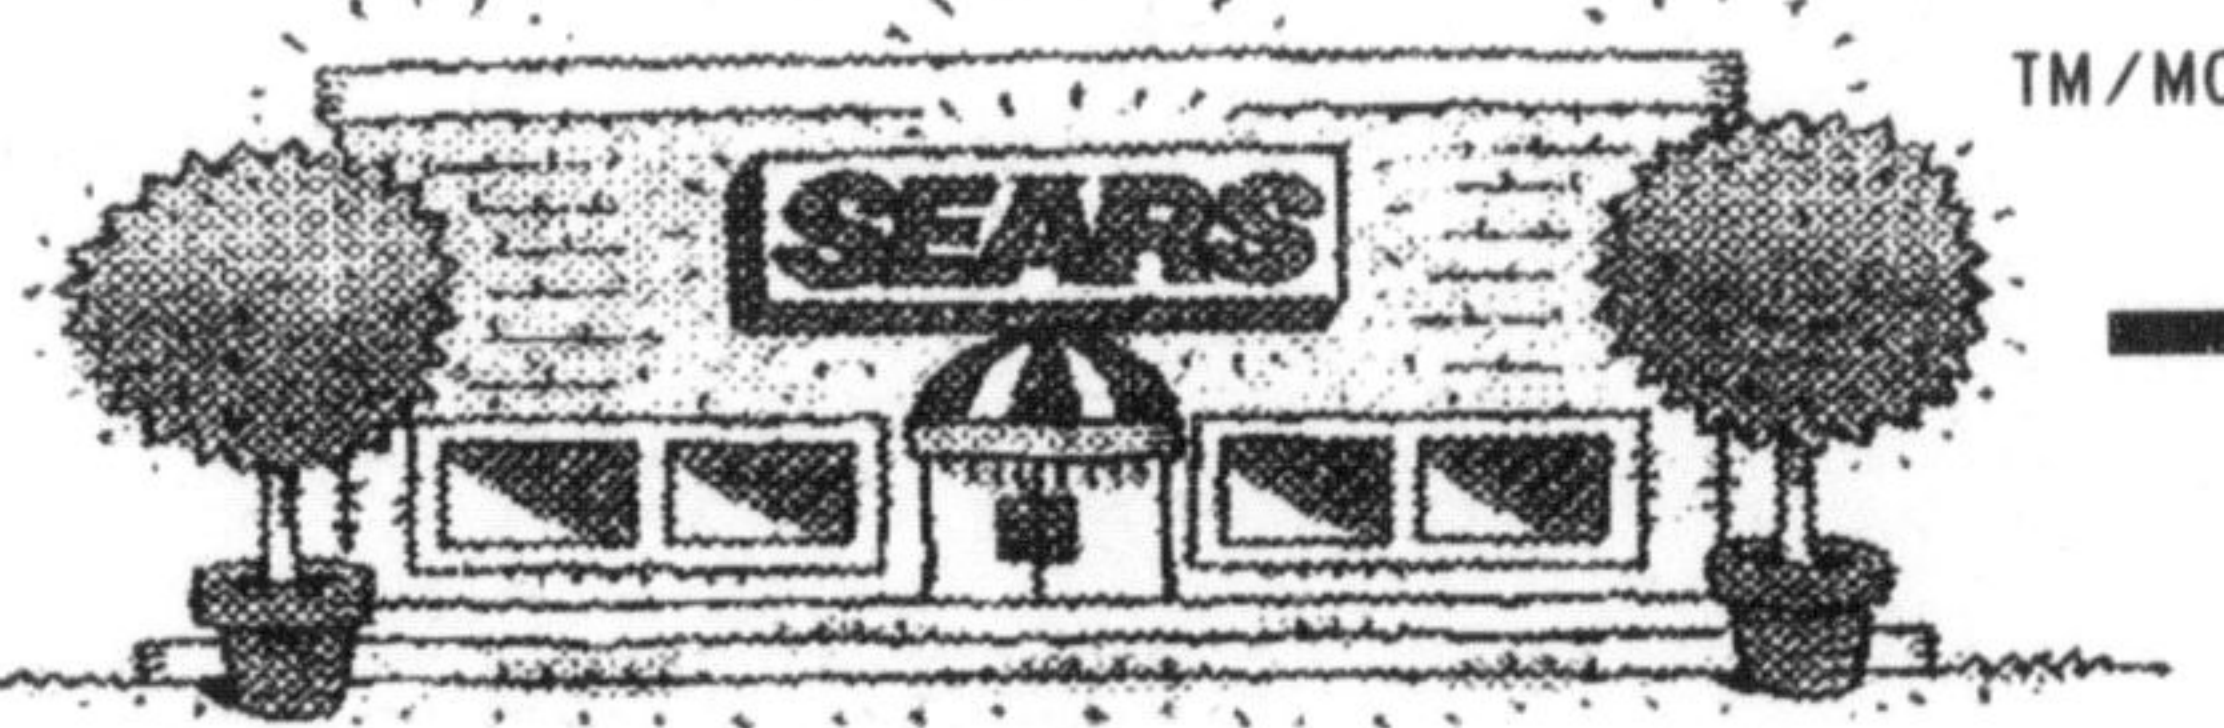

No more Third Line in south Milton

Thompson Road may soon carry on to the town's most southern limit.

Members of the Milton administration and planning committee approved the re-naming of Third Line to Thompson Road Monday.

The roadway is currently known as Thompson Road on the north side of Derry Road and Third Line on the south.

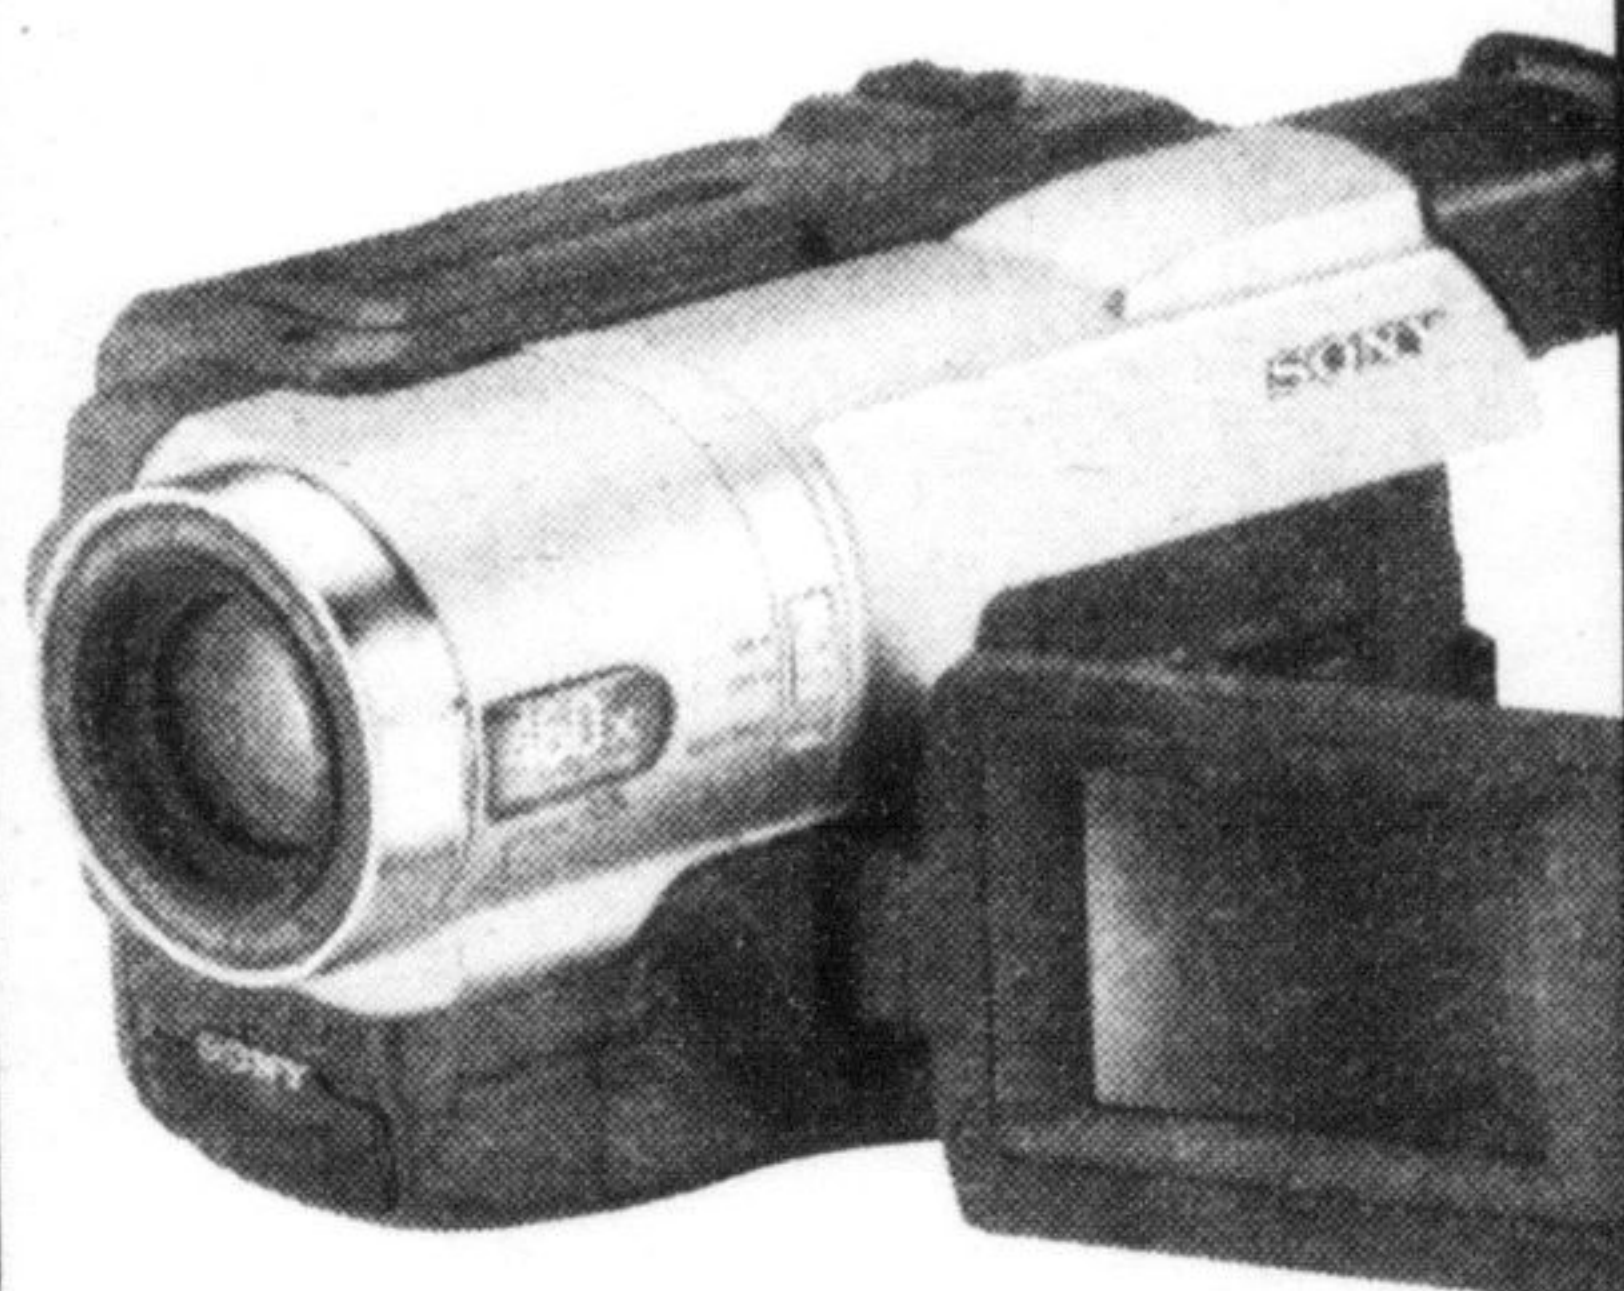

If approved by town council Monday, Third Line residences north of Britannia Road will be re-numbered to meet urban standards. Homes south of Britannia will stay under the rural numbering structure.
