

Speaker finishes third

Greg Nelson didn't know how he would place at the Toastmasters' speaking contest Tuesday.

But the novice speaker said he was pleased with his third-place showing.

The Milton Toastmasters member represented the local club during the contest, held in Brampton, and competed against five club members from area chapters.

"The topic was 'My Favourite of All Time,'" Mr. Nelson said, adding Milton club members came out to the contest to show support. "So you're thinking, what should I do? My favourite vacation? My favourite car?"

In the end, he spoke of his all time favourite teacher.

"The funny thing is you don't know how your mind will work until the moment is at hand," he continued, adding he had 30 seconds to prepare his speech. "I said she was my favourite teacher because she taught the students with a firm yet loving hand," he recalled of his grade 2 teacher. "Looking back in retrospect her teachings laid the foundation with dealing with life."

He said his main concern during the competition was making sure he spoke to the best of his ability — regardless of how he placed. "I wanted to learn from the experience and also experience a competitive atmosphere."

First-place honours went to a Brampton representative.

Can you help solve house break-in?

Halton Regional Police are investigating a break-in at a Sixth Line home.

On August 31, the homeowner left for a short period of time to visit a neighbour. While with the neighbour, the homeowner heard her house alarm sounding.

She immediately returned and found a bedroom window had been forced open. Taken in the entry was a jewelry box containing a large amount of ladies' jewelry.

The loss is estimated at more than $7,500.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter, you may be eligible for a cash reward. You will never have to give your name or testify in court.

Call 1-800-222-TIPS, (905) 825-8477.
