

'A' midgets remain unbeaten with two more wins

Milton's A midgets kept their unblemished season record intact last weekend with two more victories, including last Friday's 14-0 annihilation of host Orangeville.

The Action Utility Trailer Winterhawks faced minimal resistance throughout the evening cakewalk. Ian Kornack led the hit parade with four goals and a pair of assists, while flawless between the pipes was Aaron Clarke.

All other visiting players added points in the blowout.

Two nights later at Memorial Arena, Milton pushed their win streak to seven by outdistancing the Georgetown Raiders 5-3.

Tim Johnston made a number of key saves to stave off defeat, while Kyle Strong tallied twice.

A 50-10 goals-for-and-against differential is a ringing endorsement for the local midgets' championship potential this season.

Winning ways continue

Marcus Dunsford delivered his second two-goal game in just four days to fuel the Milton AA minor atoms' 7-1 pasting of St. Catharines Tuesday night.

The win pushed the Dunsford Landscaping Winterhawks' record to 4-3. Brandon Bodium faced just 14 shots in the win.

Single goals went to Nic Cragg, James Hart, Luke Kimmerer, Sean McGovern and Liam Robinson.

Kimmerer, McGovern and Robinson also chipped in assists for multi-point efforts.

Shutout victory

Nick Nevins was flawless between the pipes and Luke Hartwick was equally impressive at the opposite end with a hat-trick in the Milton AA minor bantams' 4-0 whitewash of the Flamborough Sabres Monday night.

Hartwick also assisted on the other goal, a deposit by Ryan Bauer. Daniel Kearns had a pair of assists, with single helpers going to Daryl Brinke and Michael Vipond.

A strong transition game and topnotch defense factored heavily into the win — number two in a row against Flamborough.

Rebound with a win

Shaking off any ill-effects from a humbling defeat to Caledon, Milton's A major peewees got back on track by dumping the Acton Tanners Tuesday night at Memorial Arena.

The Liebert Canada Winterhawks outchanced their guests more than two-to-one and controlled the game from start to finish — thanks to solid defense and a balanced scoring attack.

Five Milton players scored in the victory, with Eric Gottwald's third-period deposit standing up as the winner. Other goals came from Duffer Black, Daniel Lewandowski, Jonathan Riding and Matt Russell.

Rep Hockey

John Grant and Cal Wollaston suffocated opposing snipers.

Dominating start

Bryce Abraham exploded for four goals to fuel the Milton tyke's 6-1 home-opening victory over the Georgetown Raiders Saturday at Memorial Arena.

McMillen, J.R. Sanderson, Evan Rudd and Alex Kerr provided suffocating defense in front of credible goaltending partners Jason DaSilva and Tristan Kivac.

Two nights later at Memorial, Milton suffered an 8-4 loss to the Oakville Rangers. The hosts rallied from a two-goal deficit early on before eventually being vanquished. Jack Goncz tallied twice.

Absolute massacre

Milton's A major atoms took a little longer to secure their first season win — but when they did, it was a humdinger.

Andrew Boivin lit the lamp four times while Mackenzie Zuest had two goals and four assists in an 11-1 thrashing of the Elora Lightning Saturday afternoon at Memorial Arena. The Gorruds Auto Winterhawks also got two goals from Christopher Larkin.

Respectable effort

Milton's A minor peewees threw a serious scare into powerhouse Burlington October 17 before losing 2-1.

The Winterhawks gave up both goals in the opening period before taking control after the first intermission and drawing within one in the middle stanza on a Jason Entmaa deposit.

Joel Herder turned aside 27 of 29 shots to keep things exciting.
