Police try to track down robbers

Halton Regional Police are investigating a robbery that occurred at Milton Mall.

On October 18, a seasonal agricultural worker from Springridge Farm attended the mall to cash his pay cheque.

The victim spent roughly two hours in the mall with co-workers. While visiting the Food Court restroom, he was grabbed from behind and pinned against the wall by a male youth.

Two other male youths searched his pockets.

The bandits took his money and fled the scene toward the north parking lot.

The victim is a citizen of Mexico and has a limited English vocabulary and was shaken and confused by the incident.

The suspects are described as white males between 17 and 18 years of age.

If you have information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter, you may be eligible for a cash reward. You will never have to give your name or testify in court.
