Na na na, na na na ... DRURY!!!

Holy green and yellow, Spartan-man, has it been one whole week already?

Reporting from the Spartan-cave (a.k.a. the Drury Athletic Building), the Jr. Girls' Basketball coach, Mr. Houldcroft, says that this year's basketball season has been the best ever! The girls' team's current season record is 10-0. WHAM! Last week, the girls pulverized our cross-town rivals, Milton District, 51-16. POW! A special mention goes out to Laura Wellstead and Katherine Greaves for their excellent game skills. And moving from the court to the Wrestling room, where you can find the wrestlers practicing daily, rumor has it that Mooch is really cracking the whip. OUCH! The boys' hockey team is really cracked up over their Hockey Nights in Halton this week; the puck dropped at Thompson Arena on Tuesday at a game against M.D., and again on Wednesday and Thursday in other battles.

Last week in the Drama department, the curtain rose, under the careful direction of Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Frank, for the successful production of "Murder on Centre Stage". The show went off without a hitch ... we guess everybody did break a leg.

Maybe the talented actors will congratulate themselves on a job well done by going on the trip to Italy. Any E.C. Drury student can indulge in this opportunity of a lifetime. The adventurous travellers will be departing on Sunday, April 13th, and returning Tuesday, April 22nd. Information regarding this excursion is available at the Guidance Office. Hey badda boom, badda bing!

On a more serious note, Wednesday was the faithful day that E.C.D. students received their mid-term reports. Our senior students better have achieved good marks, considering that starting next week, University applications will be sent out via the internet. Ahhhhh! But not to worry, everyone's favourite guidance counsellor, Mr. Murray, will be on hand to lessen the anxiety and answer any questions. But before our seniors burn rubber outta here, they better purchase their E.C. Drury Spirit Gear. What captures your years here at E.C.D. better than a cool pair of pants that read "EC Grads 2003" on the butt? Order forms for these clothing items are available in the main office. All orders must be placed by November 19th. You know that you'll look so good in them! WOW!

Holy chips and candy bars Spartan-man! Is Honest Ernie's finally open? The famous school store opened for the first time this year last Wednesday. However, the store can be expecting to lose some customers on Wednesday, November 20th, due to the much-anticipated Krispy Kreme Day, held by the Wrestlers. Get your hands on these mouth-watering treats for the low price of $8.00 per dozen. KA-ZAAM!

The members of the Spartan Athletic Society were happy not to miss Krispy Kreme Day, when they ventured to Canterbury last Thursday, where they gained some valuable leadership skills. Included on this getaway, were Tanya Azzopardi and Lori Wollaston, who just happen to be October's SAS members of the month. ZOW! Congratulations are also in order for Aaron Vinski and Katherine Greaves, last month's Athletes of the Month. WHOA!

Thanks for tuning into Spartan-man, see you next week, same Spartan time, same Spartan page.

COUNTDOWN TO CHRISTMAS: 39 days!

BISHOP REDING HIGH SCHOOL

BR's Fact of the Week: Elephants are the only animals that can't jump.

Monday, November 11th, the school assembled in the cafeteria to remember Canada's fallen soldiers. The band, choir and art students complemented the Remembrance Day ceremony helping to establish a meaningful message.

Darrell Fox arrived Wednesday morning to receive the cheque for more than eleven thousand dollars. The Student Athletic Association presented him with BR's donation that resulted from the first annual Terry Fox Run. All students should be proud of their contribution.

Today, the majority of the student body left their smelly, boring black dress shoes in the closet. With a small donation of one dollar, students were walking on clouds in their warm, comfy sneakers.

The annual Talent Show took place last night. All acts were dazzlingly spectacular! The gifted students performed songs, dances, skits, and even a cheerleading entry. The show was a great success thoroughly enjoyed by the audiences as well as the coordinators of the event. Thank you to Mr. Vacca, Mr. Calzonetti and Mrs. Lepore for their time and effort. It was an evening of captivating entertainment.

BR is preparing for the Christmas season. On Monday, tickets became available to students for the annual Snowflake Ball. This winter's formal will undoubtedly be better than ever. So be sure to buy your tickets before it's too late!

Cold weather, morning frost and the occasional snow flurry indicate that fall is drawing to a close. While it may be cold outside BR's winter sports are just beginning. Tryouts for Junior and Senior girls Volleyball were held this week. The skilled players illustrated the abundance of Bishop Reding's athletic talent. In the meantime boys Basketball hit the court preparing for the testing season ahead. No doubt the Royals will once again rise to the challenge. The games begin next month, so clear your calendar and come support BR's athletes!

MILTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL "MUSTANG MESSENGER"

Milton Champion Article 9

Blue and white, that's right,
Mustang Football has put up a fight!
It started on a Friday with a jamboree,
And ended yesterday for all to see.

They trained and trained and trained some more,
Knowing that they had to score.
Mr. Pearce and the volunteers,
Made them a team that others fear.

They beat Blakelock and White Oaks too,
So defeating B.R. was nothing new.
Burlington Central went down like the rest,
Because our Mustangs are 'nothing but the best.'

They made it to the playoffs, which is no easy feat,
Proving they're a team that is rarely beat.
Yesterday they travelled to Ivor Wynne,
and 7 buses travelled with them.
Whether in that final game they won or lost,
We know what getting there had to cost.

So congratulations, you made us proud,
"Go 'Stangs" we scream out loud!
