

Boy threatened, but not injured in failed robbery

A 16-year-old boy was threatened to hand over money by a bat-wielding male while walking near Laurier Avenue and Farmstead Drive Friday night.

Halton Regional Police say that at about 11:30 p.m., a man wearing a dark bandanna over his face jumped out of a burgundy station wagon carrying an aluminum baseball bat and asked the youth if he had any money.

When the youth said no, another man got out of the car and asked the victim if he had any drugs.

The unknown suspects fled the scene after the boy answered no, police said.

The suspect carrying the baseball bat is described as a white male, 16 to 21 years of age, five-foot-10 and 160 pounds. He was wearing a beige jacket with a hood and a dark bandanna.

The suspect who asked the youth for drugs is described as white and 16 to 21 years of age. He was wearing a blue hooded sweater.

The youth also observed inside the car a white female with red or orange hair.

Anyone with information is asked to call Halton police at (905) 878-5511 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS.
