Santa Claus comes to town

Some 5,000 individuals lined Main and Bronte streets Sunday afternoon to catch the Milton Santa Claus Parade. Several awards were handed out to floats in four categories. The Town of Milton won for Best Overall Theme and Our Lady of Victory School took first for Best School Float. The Halton Agricultural Society and Dance Elite tied for Best Non-Themed Float, as did the Milton Lions Club and Milton Toyota for Best Themed Float. Float winners received a commemorative plaque from the Milton Santa Claus Parade Committee and will be formally recognized December 10 at The Ivy Arms. Parade organizers said they were pleased with this year's turnout, which was believed to be the largest to date.
