Helping hand

Halton Women's Place fundraising assistant Gennie Johnston (centre) accepts a cheque for $330 from Bert Andrews (left) of Andrews Scenic Acres and Tammy Robertson, assistant manager of the Thompson Road Tim Hortons. The cheque was the end result of a joint Halloween pumpkin sales drive between the two local businesses. The pumpkins were donated by Andrews Scenic Acres and sold at Tim Hortons.

1 in 10 women will develop BREAST CANCER

The risk increases with age. The Ontario Breast Screening Program provides breast examination and a mammogram at no cost to women who are 50 years of age or over. Make your appointment today!
