

Two entrepreneurs filling local grocery delivery gap

Businesses try to pick up slack

Two small entrepreneurs are providing a service no longer available since the closing of Quality Greens.

Marie Cooney and Ricky Stewart are operating grocery shopping and delivery businesses.

Ms Cooney recently started Marie's Grocery and Delivery Service while Mr. Stewart has operated Rent-A-Gofer Delivery Services for the past 15 years.

Ms Cooney, who's open for business

Monday to Friday, said she prefers delivery orders be put in 24 hours in advance, but will make a run with less notice if her schedule allows it.

She said the cost of delivery is $6 for an order up to $50 and $1 extra for every $10 or more.

Mr. Stewart said he's available seven days a week, but prefers to take Sundays off. He said he doesn't have set costs for delivery but usually charges seniors about $2.

To contact Ms Cooney, call (905) 693-8952. To contact Mr. Stewart, call (647) 296-0854.

Helping hands
