

Crime Stoppers of Halton

✓ Hockey sticks, shafts stolen

Halton Regional Police are investigating a break-in at Sports Traders, a hockey sporting goods store on Thompson Road.

On November 25, unknown culprits threw a brick through a glass door. The strike sounded the alarm and prompted the suspects to flee.

The thieves made off with 40 Easton hockey sticks and shafts, valued at $6,500.

Police say a witness saw a mini-van flee the area.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter, you may be eligible for a cash reward. You will never have to give your name or testify in court.

Crime Stoppers of Halton doesn't subscribe to the call display telephone feature. Thanks to our tipsters... whoever you are. A safer community is your call.

Taxi driver escapes vehicle stuck on train tracks, in nick of time

A 34-year-old Mississauga taxi driver escaped injury December 20 when he jumped out of his vehicle — stuck on the train tracks — seconds before it was struck.

Halton Regional Police said that at about 8 p.m., the man was lost and didn't realize he was stopped on the tracks at Derry Road and Eighth Line while he looked for directions.

Then the barriers came down, blocking the Voyager van from leaving the tracks, and he was forced to jump out of the vehi-
