Thieves steal excavator unit from local business

Halton Regional Police are investigating the theft of an excavator unit from Link Line December 5.

Shortly after midnight, unknown suspects cut the lock of the compound gate on Thompson Road.

The suspects moved several vehicles around in the lot and eventually stole a white Ford pick-up truck, a black dual axle trailer and an orange Kubota TX41 excavator that was loaded onto the trailer.

Police located the pick-up truck and trailer the following day near a farm on No. 20 Sideroad.

Crime Stoppers OF HALTON

The excavator, valued at $45,000, hasn't been recovered.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter, you may be eligible for a cash reward. You will never have to give your name or testify in court.

Crime Stoppers of Halton does not subscribe to the call display telephone feature. Thanks to our tipsters... whoever you are. A safer community is your call.

House broken into, car stolen

Electronic equipment and a 2002 Oldsmobile Alero were stolen from an Ontario Street North home Wednesday between 3 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Police say unknown suspects gained entry into the home from an unlocked front door and stole a DVD player and a CD player, along with a woman's diamond ring. The stolen items are valued at $5,500.

The Alero is valued at $30,000.

Cigarettes, candy stolen

A quantity of cigarettes and candy were stolen from the Esso gas station on Trafalgar Road at Britannia Road December 24.

Police responded to the scene at about 5 p.m. after an alarm was activated. The front window had been smashed and about $4,800 worth of cigarettes and $200 worth of candy had been taken. Damage to the window is estimated at $1,000.

Drug charges

A 38-year-old Scarborough woman was charged with possession of marijuana after police detected an odour inside a car December 24.

The woman was arrested at the RIDE spot check at Ontario and Main streets at about 11:40 p.m.

Car stolen

A 2001 Hyundai was stolen from McNiven Road overnight Tuesday.

Police say the doors were unlocked and the keys left inside.

The vehicle is valued at $12,000.

Public drunk charge

Halton Regional Police responded to the Fifth Wheel Truck Stop on Chisholm Drive December 22 after a Greyhound bus driver reported unruly behaviour from a passenger.

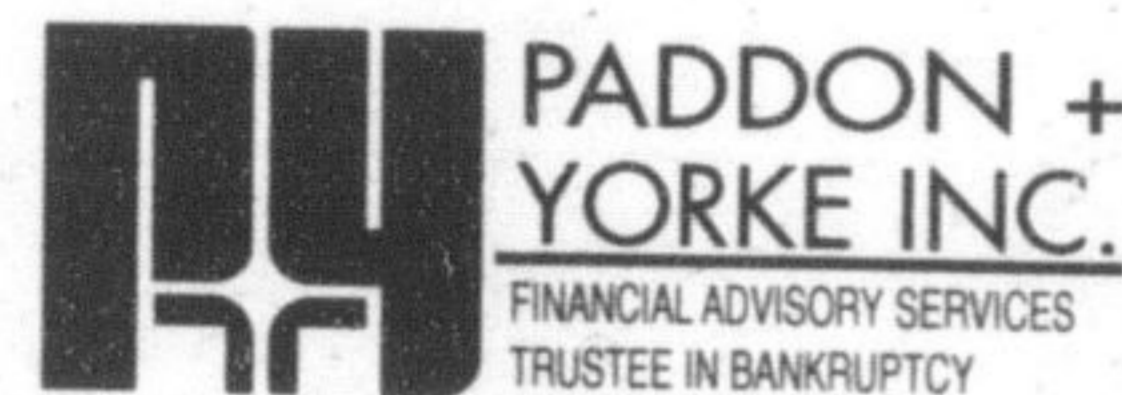

Police arrived at the scene at about 12:18 a.m. and took a 20-year-old St. Catharines man into 12 Division, where he was subsequently charged with public intoxication.
