

Upcoming concert to help support affordable housing efforts in Halton

Calling all jazz lovers!
Singer Jackie Richardson, Juno award winning pianist Joe Sealy and bassist Paul Novotny will take part in the 'Getting in the Groove' concert January 25.

The concert will be held at St. Christopher's Anglican Church, 662 Guelph Line, in Burlington at 7 p.m.

The concert is sponsored by the Halton Town Hall Group and Inter-Church Council of Burlington. Proceeds from ticket sales will support affordable housing initiatives.

"This will be a fabulous evening," said organizer Mary Lou Hull. "Getting in the Groove' is not only a concert with some of Canada's greatest jazz artists, but a learning experience about what makes jazz really tick."

Ms Richardson has received an Ampac and Canadian Black Achievement Award for her work in the music industry. Her work has been nominated for Juno and Grammy awards.

Mr. Sealy was featured in Bravo television's 'Jazz Man' series and was awarded a 1997 Juno for Best Contemporary Jazz Recording for "Africville Suite". He's performed at the legendary Jazz House in Copenhagen and at the Canadian Embassy in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Novotny has performed in the United States, Indonesia, Japan, Denmark and Norway.

His work has contributed to one Juno award and three nominations with various contemporary jazz artists.

Tickets cost $25 and can be reserved by calling (905) 320-4844 or (905) 333-0515.
