SIZE DOESN'T MATTER.

But potential certainly does. Wolverhampton Inc., a capital investment corporation, is actively seeking to purchase all or a substantial portion of an industrial products or services company headquartered in Southern Ontario.

Ideally, you are a manufacturer with a proprietary technology or process and untapped prospects for growth.

We bring to the table investment capital, and an entrepreneurial management approach backed by extensive marketing and operational know-how.

In addition, we offer you the flexibility of fully cashing out or retaining a minority interest – if you don't want to totally leave it all behind.

To explore this opportunity further, please contact M.J. Enns by phone or e-mail. All inquiries will be held in the strictest confidence.
