(NC)—If you're looking for a way to woo your sweetheart this Valentine's Day, Anna Olson — host of Food Network Canada's Sugar — suggests impressing your honey by making this easy, decadent chocolate dessert with a raspberry "heart".

Raspberry Molten Cakes:

- Preheat oven to 375°F.
- Melt 8 oz bittersweet chocolate over a pot of simmering water.
- In a separate bowl cream together 1/2 cup of butter and 2/3 cup of sugar.
- Add 3 room temperature eggs one at a time, mixing well after each addition.
- Stir in melted chocolate, 2 tbsp. of brandy or raspberry liqueur and 1 tsp. vanilla.
- In a separate bowl, sift together 1/4 cup all-purpose flour, 1/4 cup cocoa powder and dash of salt. Stir flour mixture into chocolate mixture.
- Spoon batter into 6 buttered ramekins, coated with sugar.

Anna Olson creates great desserts on Sugar, airing Monday to Friday at 4:30 p.m. ET on Food Network Canada. Chocolate-themed episodes of Sugar air on Monday, February 10 and Thursday, February 13 at 8:30 p.m. ET/PT, as part of the network's special Chocolate Week. NATURE'S FIRE
Quality Educational Toys, Games & Activities

We extend our congratulations to Natures Fire. Proud to have them as part of our growing and flourishing downtown.

The Milton Downtown Business Improvement Area

Toys & Games Magazine - Canada's toy industry publication - has selected Nature's Fire, the educational toy store as Canada's Toy Retailer of the Year for 2002.

Fiona and Ron Kennedy, the owners of Nature's Fire, are honoured by this award. "After all of the hard work that Fiona has put into establishing Nature's Fire in Milton, and then again in Vaughan, we're absolutely thrilled to be recognized in this manner" said Ron.

The award is made annually, and is based on consultation with representatives of the toy industry. Criteria include customer service, product knowledge, and creative promotion.

The Toys & Games Magazine award is the second national recognition for Nature's Fire.
