Diego Sdao, owner of the new Tim Hortons at the south-west corner of Regional Road 25 and Derry Road, and employee Pauline Arsenault show some of the coffee shop's offerings. The store, which opened last month, features a drive-through window as well as an in-store counter.

Business planning seminar Feb. 19

If there's one thing entrepreneurs and small business owners know about, it's risk. Although it can never be completely eliminated, it can be reduced.

The Halton Region Business Development Centre is holding a business planning seminar, which will arm participants with the knowledge and skills to create a winning business plan. It will be held February 19 from 8 to 11:30 a.m.

"The business plan is an entrepreneur's most critical tool for success," said John Ayling, director of business development for Halton Region.

"A solid business plan tells the complete story about your business—its goals, where you're headed, and how you're going to get there. It's your road map for success."

The seminar will cover topics including how to target your market, developing an effective plan and financial tools for success.

The seminar will be led by Rick Booth, a certified management consultant, principal, and managing associate of EN-TECH Associates in Oakville.

The seminar will take place at the Halton Regional Centre at 1151 Bronte Rd. in Oakville. The cost is $30. For more information, or to register, call (905) 825-6000. You can also visit www.haltonbusiness.com.
