tume, but you can imagine I am if you like.
If this column was a musical, it would be perfectly okay. Now, do you see how stupid it is?

Yes, I said stupid again.

I don't even put musicals in the same category as chick flicks. I like so-called chick flicks just fine. They're about real life, real people, real situations. Okay, maybe not actually real, but possibly real. In no real or possibly real scenarios do people just up and start singing and dancing.

I'm quite aware that productions like Mama

Mia are very popular. Even men go to them, especially if they've done something wrong and their wives or girlfriends make them.

But, here's the problem. They're stupid.
