Ballots open for Citizen of the Year

By STEPHANIE THIESSEN
The Champion

Nominees have been announced for the 2002 Community Awards, presented by the Milton Chamber of Commerce — and it's up to you to decide on the Citizen of the Year.

Three Miltonians have been nominated for the title, and the winner will be announced at the Community Awards Gala April 12 at Granite Ridge Golf Club.

Ballots are included in today's issue of The Champion, and will also be in Friday's paper.

Here are the nominees:

Barbara Burton

Blanche Hinton

Laura McKee

Barbara Burton

Barbara Burton has been involved with the Milton community for the more than 30 years she has lived here.

"I feel you get out of the community what you put into it," Ms Burton said. "This is an incredible honour, but I feel like I should honour Milton. It's given me an opportunity to grow."

Ms Burton is an active member of St. George's Anglican Church in Lowville, sitting on many committees. She often goes on pastoral visits at Mount Nemo Nursing Home and the hospital.

She served on the Milton District Hospital Board, and was then a member of the transition team as the Milton and Oakville hospitals amalgamated to become Halton Healthcare Services. She's currently chair of Halton Healthcare Services.

"To see a dramatic change in how services are delivered is really rewarding," Ms Burton said.

Blanche Hinton

Ms Hinton has lived in Milton for almost 30 years.

She served on town council from 1978 to 1985, and is a member of the Rotary Club of Milton, having served on its executive. She founded and is still heavily involved with Milton Concert Productions, and is currently organizing a children's concert series.

Ms Hinton was a teacher at the E.C. Drury School for the Deaf for 26 years, and helped establish an international exchange program for its students.

"I've been a helper for as long as I can remember," she said.

Ms Hinton was on the Milton Library Board and served as president of Halton Recovery House. She has also been involved with the Milton Historical and Horticultural societies.
