

Lunch, dinner tickets still available for Red Cross fundraiser March 23

The North Halton branch of the Canadian Red Cross will hold its Power of Humanity fundraiser at Pasqualino Cafe and Bistro on Main Street East.

A special lunch and dinner will be served March 23 at the restaurant, with proceeds going to the Red Cross. Tickets are still available.

Another fundraising event, a cooking class with Chef Dominic, has sold out.

Raffle tickets are also now on sale, with prizes including Raptors tickets and a day at the spa.

March marks Red Cross Month, and the Red Cross is encouraging Milton residents to find out how the organization can help them during vulnerable periods.

A network of Red Cross staff and volunteers assists communities around the world.

However, the Red Cross said, many people don't realize that the organization addresses a wide range of issues and situations that threaten individuals at different stages of their lives.

"Programs such as anti-bullying workshops for youth, disaster response for families that have been burned out of their homes, and our home health equipment services all address issues and situations that leave people vulnerable," said Allison Goertzen of the Red Cross. "This March is Red Cross Month. We want to encourage people to find out what we do in their community and also how they can get involved."

The lunch will start at 12:30 p.m. and costs $25. Tickets for the dinner, held at 6:30 p.m., cost $45.

Tickets for all events and the raffle are available at the Milton Red Cross branch office at 100 Nipissing Rd., unit 5.

Women's Day event slated for Wednesday

A Women's Day event will come to south Milton Wednesday.

The Voices of Women for Peace is the theme of the evening slated for Rattlesnake Point Golf Club. It's part of International Women's Week (March 2 to 8) and UN International Women's Day (March 8).

The keynote speaker in Milton will be

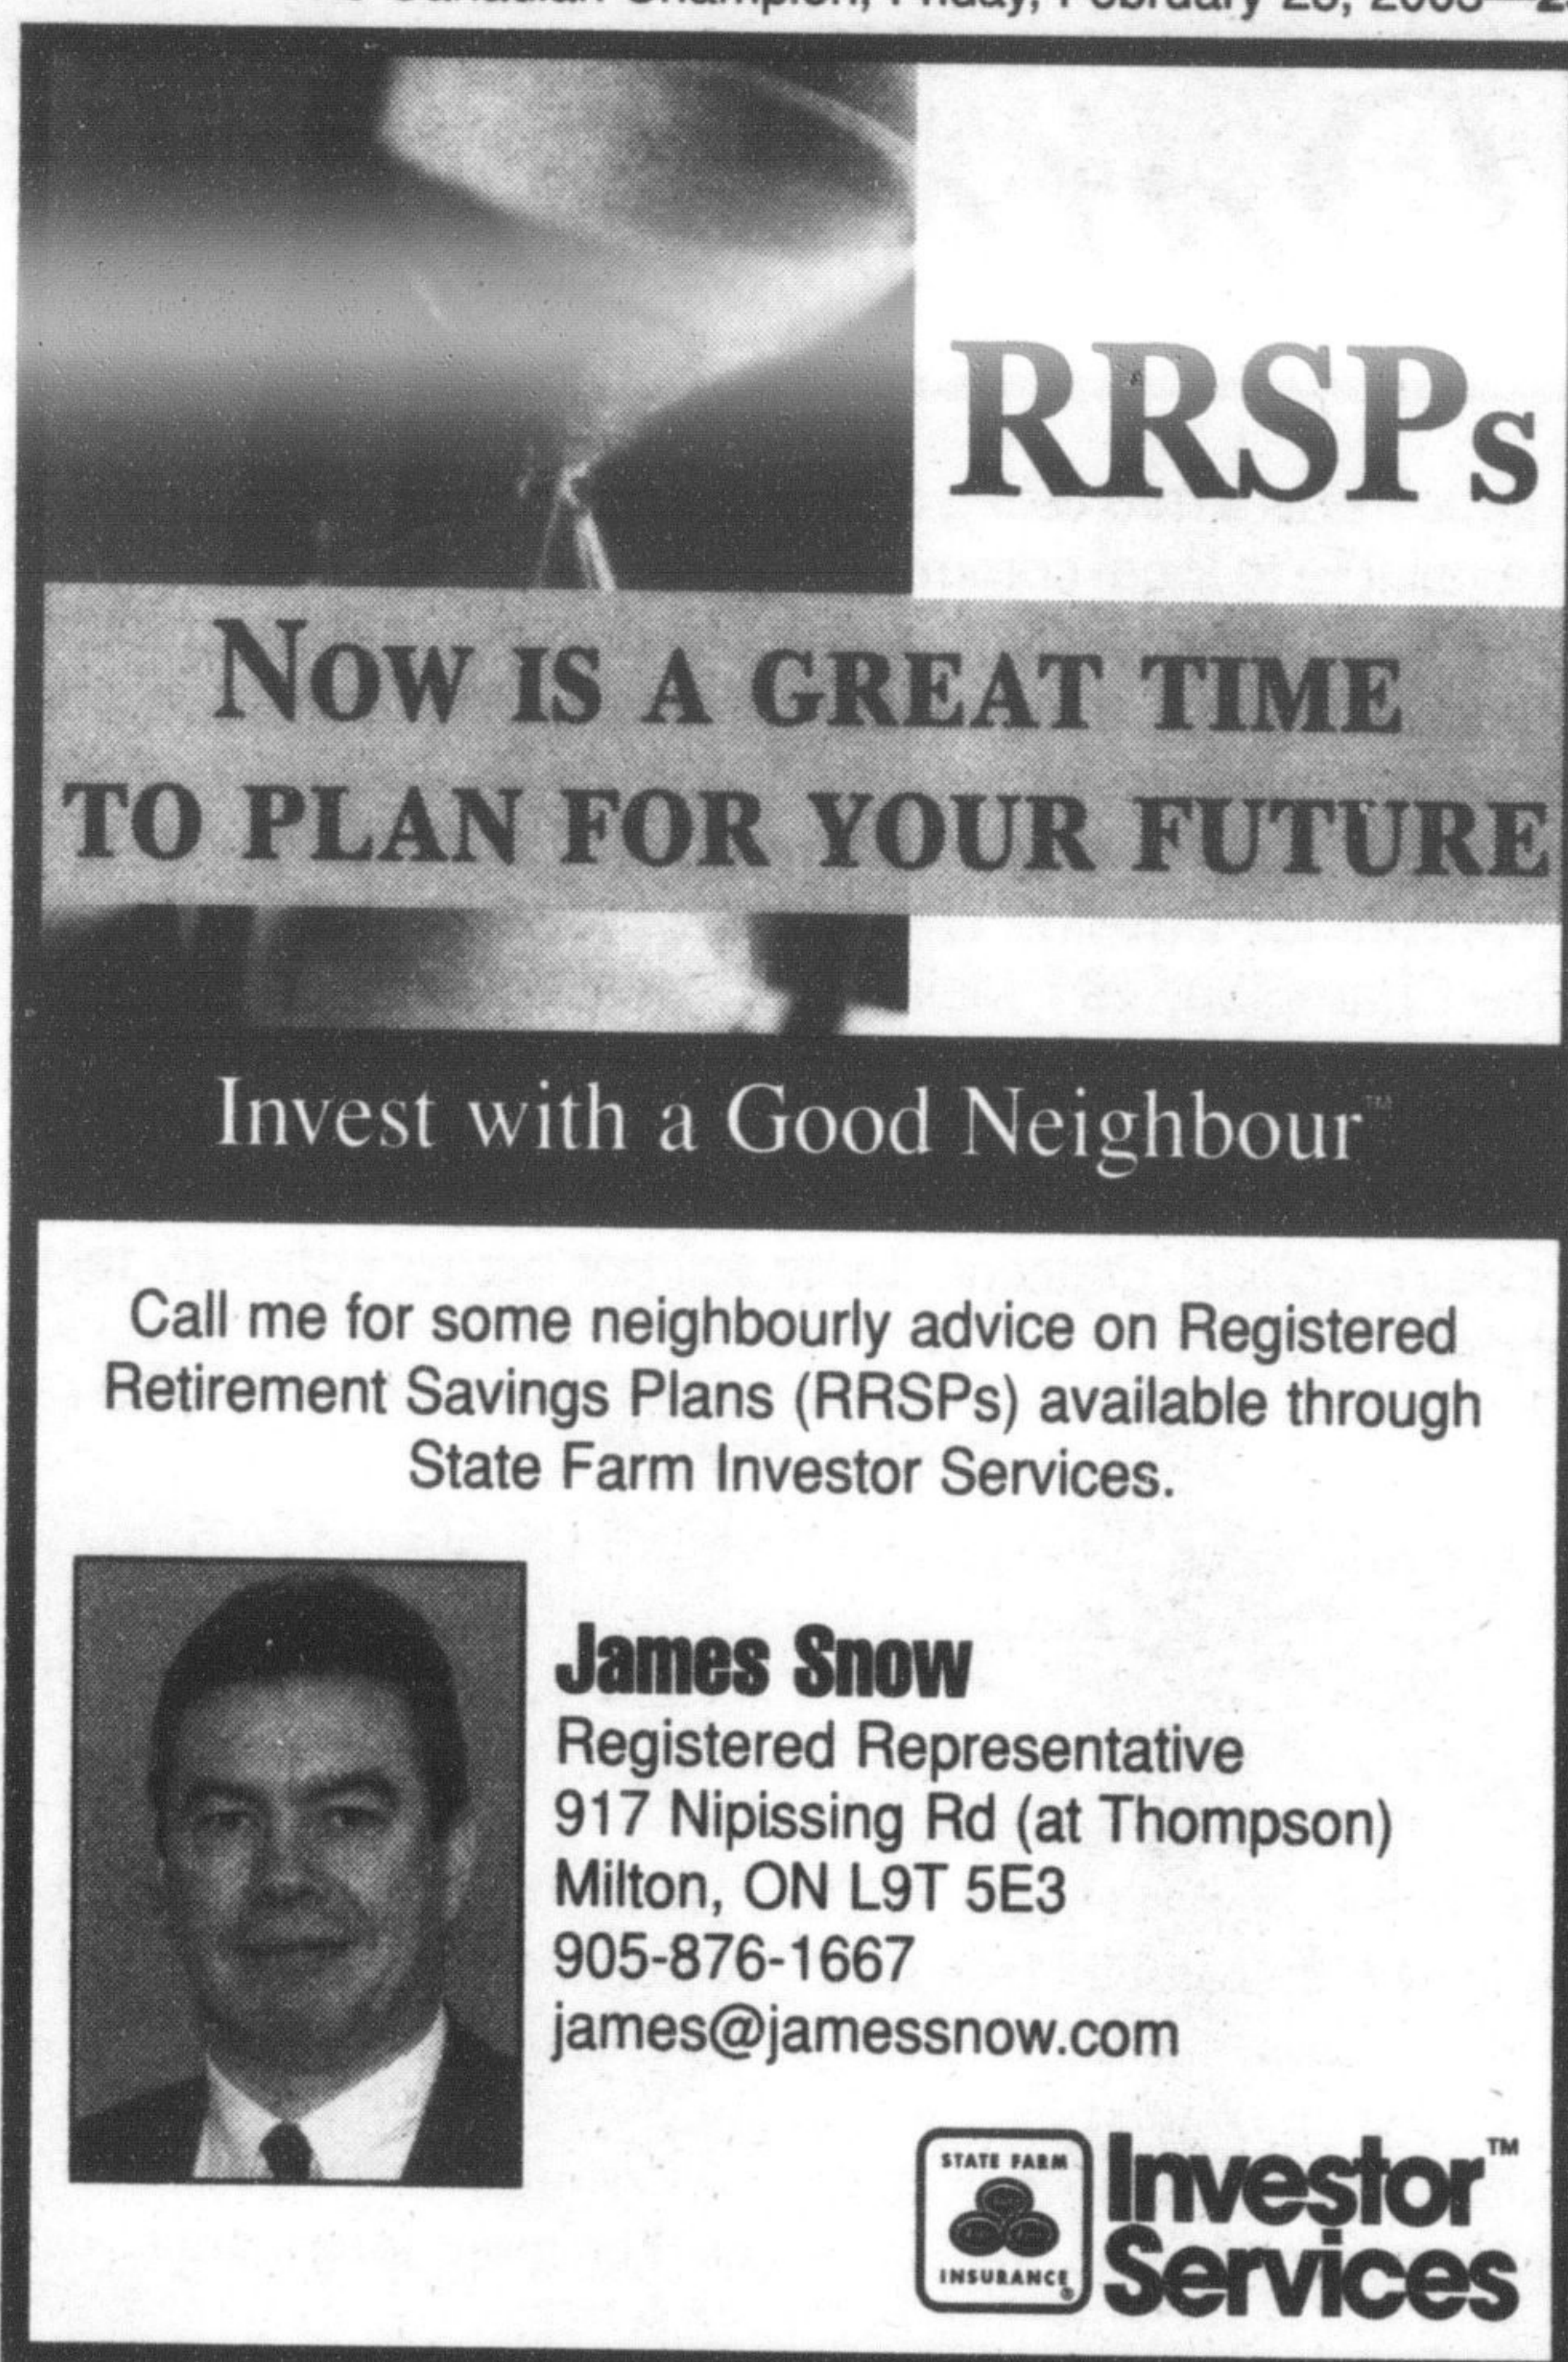

Joy Warner, the past national chair of Canadian Voices of Women. She will talk at 6:30 p.m. about issues involving women and peace and report on her attendance this year as a delegate at the World Social Forum in Brazil.

The night also will include performances by the choir Womenchant and the Raging Grannies, a group of women who express their activism through music.

Admission to the event, which includes coffee and desert, is $15 for adults and $10 for students.

Tickets must be bought in advance and are available at several outlets around the region. Call (905) 332-1633.
