at East Sixteen Mile Creek
Town of Milton

The Study

The Town of Milton is conducting a study to investigate improvements to Sixth Line from Lower Base Line to the Bailey Bridge at East Sixteen Mile Creek, a distance of approximately 1.5 km.

The recommended design concept includes the following components:

- improvements to the horizontal alignment and vertical profile of the Bailey Bridge at East Sixteen Mile Creek; and,
- replacement of the existing Bailey Bridge with a new two lane single span structure with concrete abutments.

Sixth Line within the project limits will be constructed to a 60 km/h design speed and will have a posted speed limit of 50 km/h.

Controversy surrounds Province's budget release

By JASON MISNER
The Champion

Halton Tory MPP Ted Chudleigh says he doesn't think it will matter to the public where a provincial budget is released as long as it gets the details.

"The media will cover it and report it to the people of Ontario and that's where the communication will take place," said Mr. Chudleigh, who's parliamentary assistant to Ontario's Finance Minister Janet Ecker.

Ms Ecker will present her budget March 27 via satellite television and across the Internet at a yet-to-be-decided gathering instead of traditionally standing up and speaking in the Legislature, a controversial move that has ruffled Liberal Opposition feathers.

The Legislature was supposed to begin its spring session yesterday, but instead will reconvene April 30 with a Throne Speech, which will lay out the government's policy plans.

MPPs haven't met since December 13.

Mr. Chudleigh said no location has been chosen yet to deliver the budget, but noted Ms Ecker's riding is Oshawa and Mr. Eves' is Orangeville. Mr. Chudleigh said he'll put in a request to have the budget released in Milton.

Liberal's long-serving MPP Sean Conway, representing Renfrew-Nipissing-Pembroke, said a budget can only be a legal document when it's presented into the Legislature by the minister of finance. What Mr. Eves plans to do is nothing more than a "Tory pre-election infomercial," he said.

Mr. Conway also said it isn't fair to have taxpayers pay for the TV and Internet hook-ups to bring the budget announcement into homes and businesses across the province.
