Business After Hours Events becoming "the" event in Milton!

The February Business After Hours event held at TravelChoice/American Express was yet another successful Milton Chamber of Commerce event. Surrounded by photos and posters of cruise liners and Caribbean beaches, over 85 guests gathered to network at the Martin Street agency. Manager Ruth Burnett enlightened the group on the benefits of using a travel agent and gave many web-centric guests some excellent food for thought. Infusion Catering and Event Design provided an extraordinary spread of tantalizing seafood kebobs, decadent desserts and wine for all in attendance. Co-hosts Kelly Sinyi Miller and Chef Shabbir, owners of Infusion, visited with the guests and parlayed the joys of catering.

Tobey Deys from Infusion Catering and Event Design serves Katie Spillane and Terry Lynne Causley of TravelChoice/American Express at the Chamber's February Business After Hours.

Over 150 Chamber members attended the Business After Hours event held at the Halton Region Museum held on March 25th. Co-hosted by local caterer Allison's of Milton, the event was a sophisticated soiree filled with beautifully ornate ice sculptures, courtesy of Ice Magic, trays of smoked salmon appetizers, sushi, and chocolate dipped strawberry trees. The Escarpment Country™ Tourism partners also showcased their businesses and services and all new Chamber members had the opportunity to speak. Paul Attack, Manager of Heritage Services at the Museum offered tours of the superb facilities at the Museum. One lucky guest left the event on a high note, winning a door prize of an evening of a Chef in your own home for a party of 6, donated by Allison's of Milton.

Allison and Meredith Vaux of Allison's of Milton co-host the Chamber's March Business After Hours with the Halton Region Museum.
