Prosperity One proud of staff

• from BUSINESS on page 3
Business of the Year
(26 employees or more)
Prosperity One

"A business is only as good as the people who work there. We have tremendous employees," said Peter Buwalda, CEO of Prosperity One Community Banking and Financial Services on Main Street. Prosperity One on Main Street opened in 1957 and has 10 employees.

"I'm proud of the staff and the length of time they spend working with us," Mr. Buwalda said, adding that he'll always remember the look on staff members' faces when it was announced Prosperity One had won the award.

The other nominee in this category was Milton Mall.

Business of the Year
(25 employees or less)
Lawton's Landscaping Ltd./
Taylor Nursery

Taylor Nursery on Fifth Line opened 15 years ago as a division of Lawton Landscaping, which was started 28 years ago.

Philip Lawton, who owns the business with his wife, Barbara, accepted the award as his family looked on from the podium.

"The future generation of Taylor Nursery is standing here with us," he said.

Mrs. Lawton said she thinks winning the award will cause the family to work even harder keeping customers satisfied.

Other nominees in this category were M. Putzer Hornby Nursery Ltd. and Prothane Ltd.
