Sunday fundraiser to support Crohns and Colitis research

It's time to get in gear for the eighth annual Heel 'n' Wheel-A-Thon.

The nation-wide fundraiser to aid Crohn's and Colitis research efforts will be held Sunday.

The Halton chapter of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation will host the event at Burlington's Spencer Smith Park — where participants can walk, run, ride or skip in their bid to wipe out the inflammatory bowel disease, which affects about 100,000 Canadian children and adults.

This year's regional goal is $30,000. The coast-to-coast event is sponsored by M&M Meat Shops, Imodium, Procter & Gamble Pharmaceuticals, Coca-Cola, Shoppers Drug Mart, St. Urbain Bagel and Pizza Nova.

For more information or to obtain a pledge form, call area coordinator Dallas Giroux at (905) 637-1849 or the Halton chapter at (905) 381-0258.
