Milton Tennis Club shows strongly on the rep circuit

Milton Tennis Club's rep players have delivered some strong showings recently.

Unfortunately, not all of them have resulted in victory.

Case in point was the club's division four squad, which dropped a narrow decision to Oakville's Wallace Park May 21.

Crafty veterans Dave Adams and Larry Langer kept things a lot closer than expected — leaving their opponents bewildered for much of the encounter.

However, tie-breaker losses by the mixed doubles team allowed Wallace Park to squeak by 7-5.

Milton's division one contingent was much more successful against Wallace Park two days earlier — toppling the rival club 9-3 on the strength of stellar play by mixed doubles partners Sue Clarke and Bob Edmonds.

Then one week later the top level group white-washed Erin Mills 12-0.

A standout performance by substitute Regina Devine — filling in for an injured Jodie Rideout — fueled the blowout victory, which pushed the team's season record to 2-1.

The division one squad will look to build on that against Mississauga's White Oaks Monday.

Meanwhile, Milton Tennis Club's Intercounty Majors dropped a tough 5-1 decision to Aurora's Timberlane recently.

The overall verdict wasn't quite indicative of the competitiveness of the matches — two of which went to three sets before being won by Timberlane.

Eneas Silva and Stacey Arbelter scored the lone win for Milton in mixed doubles action.
