Children learn what they live

My wife, Natalie, has a heart for children. God has blessed her with the wonderful opportunity of bringing leadership and direction to our denomination's Children's Ministry Department on a national level. Regularly, she is involved in motivating and inspiring others to take up the cause of reaching kids for Christ. A colourful poster hangs on her office door to silently remind her of the significant role she can play in a child's life:

If a child lives with criticism,

A child learns to condemn.

If a child lives with hostility,

A child learns to fight.

If a child lives with ridicule,

A child learns to be shy.

If a child lives with shame,

A child learns to feel guilty.

If a child lives with tolerance,

A child learns to be patient.

If a child lives with encouragement,

A child learns confidence.

If a child lives with praise,

A child learns to appreciate.

If a child lives with fairness,

A child learns justice.

If a child lives with security,

A child learns to have faith.

If a child lives with approval,

A child learns self-esteem.

If a child lives with acceptance and friendship,

A child learns to find love in the world.

Make an investment into the life of a child today! Determine to bring your kids to church to provide them with the moral and ethical foundation they'll need to make good decisions along the road of life. Your efforts and actions are significant!

The Church directory below will assist you in making your selection! Visit as many churches as you need to until you find a place to call home!
