Maverick bants suffer first defeat at tourney

So Milton's bantam lacrosse team is beatable after all.

The Mavericks had made an airtight case to the contrary heading into last weekend's Milton Invitational Tournament.

But higher-ranked 'B' level competition finally wore on the hosts and cost them an 8-1 humbling at the hands of Mississauga in the semifinals Sunday.

Joey De'Athe was the lone marksman in the loss, which followed an undefeated round robin campaign.

Milton kicked things off with a 7-6 squeaker over Mimico — thanks to two-goal efforts from Mike Currie and Tyler Harvey — and then tied Huntsville 6-6. Harvey potted a pair in the second-round stalemate as well.

From there, the local lads capped preliminary competition by toppling Oakville 7-4. Currie and Ian Goertz each tallied twice in this one.

The Mavericks would immediately return to their winning ways against Fergus Monday.

While not nearly as dominant as they have been through much of this spring, they delivered a gutsy effort at both ends of the floor and got a big four-goal, one-assist night from Goertz.

Currie had a goal and two assists, while also denting the twine was Ryan Lecky.
