Hunt Chrysler Jeep 2
Subway 2
In a very close and exciting match, Hunt Chrysler Jeep and Subway played to a 2-2 tie as Erik Kerkhof scored in the last minute for Hunt Chrysler to even the score. Alex Villada scored in the first half for Hunt Chrysler, his first goal of the year, while Clare Elsley and Dawson Nicholls were solid in net all game. Tyler Townsend scored twice for Subway, once in each half, while special efforts were put in by Ashley Tufts and Robert Mills. Subway goalkeepers Evan Dalley and David Hopkins played well all game especially in the second half when Hunt Chrysler had several scoring chances. Great efforts were put in for Hunt Chrysler Jeep by Conner Ellis and Emily Schneider.

Rainbow Village Day Care 5
Hunt Chrysler Jeep 1
Rainbow Village Day Care was victorious as AJ Sabater, on a long range shot, and Jake Kimmerer scored in the first half and Owen Lingard scored two second half goals to put the game out of reach. Goalkeepers Nathan Elmes and Patrick Mulhall played strong in net for the winners. Isiah Barkley scored in the first half for Hunt Chrysler Jeep to keep the game close for a while and Emily Smith had a great offensive run in the second half that just came up short. Hunt Chrysler goalies Conner Ellis and Jordan Eves faced the Rainbow Village onslaught and made several big saves.

Wakefield Wildcats 6
KPMG 2
KPMG goaltenders David Leach and Marco Gianuzzi stood tall for their team robbing numerous attempts from the Wakefield Wildcat's strikers. Strong workmanlike efforts from the likes of Lucas Turner and Emily Cugno, of the Wildcats, eventually broke down the KPMG defense and led to multi goal efforts from Erik Wiebe (2) and Frances McCaul (2) along with singles from Joshua Martini and Emma Bizi. KPMG players battled hard to the end, and both Riley Gennier and David Leach were able to solve the goaltending of the Wildcat's provided by Emma Bizi and Gabriel Iozzo. Jacob Trembley played a solid game for KPMG forcing Wildcat defenders to be at the top of their games.

Zellers 1
Subway took an early lead with Tyler Townsend scoring on the ever talented Zellers goalie, Cody Baillie. Even with the many brilliant saves by Cody throughout the first half, Subway's David Hopkins and Rachel Digiallonardo were each able to find the net before the half-time whistle blew. With Zellers having many scoring opportunities during the first half of play, Jack McCusker performed an outstanding job for Subway between the pipes allowing for no goals by Zellers. The determination continued through the second half of the game with goals by Subway by Tyler Townsend and Jack McCusker (2). Zellers goalie, Rachel Duivesteyn played hard, stopping shot after shot. In net for Subway in the second half was Rachel Digiallonardo. Rachel's aggressive play allowed Zellers' Amanda Roche to score only once ending the game at Subway 6, Zellers 1. Special mention for outstanding play this week goes to Rodrigo Aguirre from the Zellers team and Bailey Waite from Subway.

Tim Horton's 8
Hunt Chrysler 1
Tim Horton's were hot once again in an impressive 8-1 victory over Hunt Chrysler. Atakan Demir, who had two goals for the day, opened the scoring shortly after the starting whistle with a shot that gave Keeper Viola Moss little chance. The Timbits kept the pressure on the entire game. Rachel Luce, who captained the Timbits for this game, had another impressive team performance and found the back of the net twice for her first goals of the season. Gianni Ginocchi came out of the Timbits goal in the second half and netted two, beating Keeper Emily Smith, who had a strong second half in goal for Hunt. Hunt's Isiah Barkley, who had several excellent scoring chances throughout the game, finally beat Joshua Squires on a break-a-way in the second half. Rounding out the scoring for the Timbits were Joshua Squires and Nathan MacKinnon. Dawson Nicholls and Conner Ellis also had stellar performances for Hunt Chrysler.

Hi Five Photo 5
A fun filled game between the teams concluded with Hi Five Photo winning with Connor Miller scoring four goals and Nicholas Strohl scoring once. Hard work and fine ball control resulted in Amanda Roche scoring once for Zellers. Hi Five Photo was inspired by their goaltenders Nicholas Zorzi and Oliver Hickey stops. Stopping several shots was the Zellers goaltending tandem of Skyia Baker and Madelyn Strode. Eric Schomberg and Emily Schneider played a good game for Hi Five

Photo and Zellers benefited from Ryan Egger running fast and making some great defensive stops and Andrew Alava making some nice passes to his teammates.

Greenpark Homes 4
Gillonna Farms 2
A beautiful evening was the backdrop for an exciting game between Greenpark Homes and Gillonna Farms. Both Connor Little and Jen Kubik from the Gillonna Farms team scored with a hard low shot to the corner. The outstanding defensive play of Lucas Sharpe and the remarkable diving saves by Tyler Gaetan from Greenpark Homes prevented the opposing team from increasing their lead. Adam McMullen displayed very good skills in goal. The numerous breakaways by Andrew Boyle resulted in one well-deserved goal. The other goal scorers were Tyler Gaetan and Matthew Milnarevic with two. Good positioning in net by Emily Gallant secured the victory for Greenpark Homes.

State Farm 2
Connor Miller scored all 4 goals for hi-five photo in an end to end match, which saw great defensive play by Oliver hickey and Nicholas Strohl. Marissa Busiello and Christine Smrcek were kept busy in goal. Michael Hunter scored both insurance goals for state farm with spirited play by Janet James and Sydney Galioto. Jesse Korta and Scott Peebles turned away many shots as they minded the nets for State Farm.

Rainbow Village Daycare 6
Milton Toyota 3
Rainbow Village Daycare took on Milton Toyota in a great game. Some great goals were made by Rainbow Village AJ sabater, Jake Kimmerer, Aislinn Martin(3) and Mykaela Ezeard. Milton Toyota played hard with Christopher Pelow getting all three goals for Milton Toyota. Great goaltending by Alex Guarini and Briene Morrison for Milton Toyota and Patrick Mulhall and Owen Lingard for Rainbow Village for playing a strong game and playing hard.

Under 6

Hinton Carpets 2
Investors Group 2
First half action saw Sean Irving start the scoring for Hinton Carpets with an excellent pass from Bryan Martini. Hinton Carpets kept up the pressure with great hustle from Katie Alford, Raymond Hinton, Jennifer Matthew and Nicholas Schrim. D'arcy Witt added another goal for Hinton Carpets with an awesome drive. The second half saw the Investors group turn it around as Jason Cullen, Devon Hobbs and Stephen Aleinik lead the charge. Bryanna South tied the score after an impressive full field drive, adding to the Investors Group "team" goal from the first half. Great goal tending by Blake Wodham and Ryan Tostik for Hinton Carpets. The Investors Group had Bryanna South goaltending for the first half and Ryan Harkins keeping them in the game in the second half stopping Hinton Carpets many chances, including a penalty kick.

Investor's Group 2
Shoppers Drug Mart 4
The goalies for both sides where a force to be reckoned with. Investors Group Jason Cullen and Sarah Palermo and Shoppers Matthew Whetham and Gregory Ford held off a lot of shots on net. Investors Rebecca Williams and Bryanna South were strong forwards getting the two goals and Ryan Kevin (put in two), Andrea Dermott and Thomas Davidson scored for Shoppers. Both teams played strong with exceptional work put in by Stephen Aleinik and Sabrina Pagliari for Investors and Riley Brady and Brooklyn Brown for Shoppers.

Lions Club 2
Safe & Sound 1
Lions Club goaltenders Bodhan Kudlyk and Logan Sidsworth held Safe & Sound scoreless until Trevor Murphy unleashed an unstoppable shot for Safe & Sound's goal. Leading Safe & Sound's superior play were Cameron Jackson and Nico Fata, while Lions' Club players Jamie Hogan and Jason Paultett enthralled fans with their display of soccer prowess. Despite the strong play of Ryan Murphy and Roshan Bashar in the Safe and Sound goal, Ashley Logan and Vincenzo Ginocchi combined for Lions Club's two goals in the second half.

Liberty Mutual Insurance 2
International Dairy Ingredients 0
Liberty Mutual Insurance scored their first victory of the season against International Dairy Ingredients. Liberty Mutual's two goalies, Katie Sinnige and Troy Pilote, were in fine form while International Dairy's goalkeeper, Travis South, was kept busy and managed to keep Liberty Mutual to only two goals. Brydon McMillen scored both of Liberty Mutual's goals. Liam Riddell and Kobe Iwasa played strong defensively and birthday boy Keenan Pereira contributed to the team's defensive efforts as well. Liberty Mutual's Trevor Lesage and Isabella Maugeri were instrumental in shutting down International Dairy's offensive strikes and Devon Stark had several scoring opportunities but just couldn't sneak one past the International Dairy goalkeeper.

Milton Chrysler Dodge 4
Remax-Patrick Batty
Goalies Ben Heathcote, Regan Stewart of Remax and Grant Belanger, Mitchell Fowler of Milton Chrysler were all confronted with many challenges as the evenly matched teams created several scoring opportunities. The action packed game saw precision goals by Grant Belanger, Cole MioBertolo and a hat trick for Adriano D'Olivo all of Milton Chrysler. Four awesome goals scored by the unstoppable Brett Melanson and one for Tammy Lupinacci clenched the game for Remax. Milton Chrysler's Steven Prochorowicz and Dana Walters displayed their excellent kicking and running skills. Nolan Cormier, Erika Patusa and Holden Martin of Remax had a strong game showing the importance of positional play and passing.

Shoppers Drug Mart 3
International Dairy Ingredients 2
Once again, Brooklyn Brown and Ryan Kevin had very strong outings for Shoppers Drug Mart, with Brooklyn getting one goal and Ryan getting two. Shopper's Gregory Ford made some spectacular saves, as did Andrea Dermott. Matthew Whetham also had a great game. Intl. Dairy had some great breakaways, with Keenan Pereira and Travis South both netting goals. Excellent efforts were also made by Heidi Schaffler, Connor Goodband and Jillian Kelly.

H C R C 1
Milton Sunoco 6
Great game by Robert James who scored 4 times for the Milton Sunoco team and by Brandon Rodrigues who chipped in with 2 goals. The H C R C team got a photo goal from Jacob Quinn and some good goaltending and defensive work from the "G MAN".

Halton Community Resource Centre 1
Southview Dental 6
Southview Dental's practicing after every meal and before bed certainly paid off this week, as they brushed their way to a 6 - 1 victory over Halton Community Resource Centre. H.C.R.C.'s goalies, Justine Johnson and Tyler Tyson, played well, but couldn't stop the drilling shots of Alex Matckars, Danielle Vis and Ayla Blackburn, who each scored twice. The cavities in Southview's nets were effectively filled by Danielle Vis in the first half and "Rockin'" Wesley Dumencu in the second half, allowing only a single goal to be extracted by H.C.R.C.'s Jacob Quinn. Special mention goes to Southview's Mark Cerel for his strong defensive support and H.C.R.C.'s Franco Del Rosso for his excellent ball handling.

Halton Region Pest Control 1
Deerhurst Electrical Contractors 4
Deerhurst's netminders were Gina McNeil, and David Jones was tested. Suneel Rambharose, Jenny Haringa and Wyatt Turner all had chances but only Adam Evans managed to get one past them. H.R.P.C.'s goalies Aislinn Fisher and Sukhroop Cheema did a great job, with good defence from Jesse Mastrangelo and Chris Woods, but Brett Everson was unstoppable. He scored all of Deerhurst's goals with help from teammates such as Sarah Smyth.

Milton IDA 1
Halton Recycling 0
It was a close game through the first half. Milton IDA had several chances but great goal tending by Justin Brown for Halton Recycling kept the tie game tied at 0-0. Bethany Ashton & Spencer Csajaghy were strong for Milton IDA. The second half was also close until IDA's Dylan Sabater got an incredible shot past Charlie Pink who stopped everything else sent his way. Special mentions for Halton Recycling go to Megan Gordon & Victoria Rogers who worked well to get the ball up the field, but were unable to get it past IDA goalies Drake Bailey & Aneta Grabek.

Milton Sunoco 4
Park 'n' Lube 1
Below an overcast sky the sun shone on Milton Sunoco. From the start the Sunoco team put pressure on the Park 'n' Lube goal, scoring two fine first half goals from Robert James and Conor Fisher. The score would have been more if it had not been for some great shot stopping from Park 'n' Lube goalkeeper Selina Cole. In the second half Milton Sunoco continued where they left off, scoring two further goals, 1 again from Robert James and the other from Brandon Rodrigues. Park 'n' Lube scored a late consolation goal from Ryan McLaughlin, but by this stage the game was already won by a great all round team performance by Milton Sunoco.

Milton Hawkeyes - Dr. Susan Jany - Optometrist 4
Precision Sheperds 3
Strong individual, offensive skills were displayed at this game, with Jacob Cameron scoring three goals for the Hawkeyes while Matthew Lenaham counted with three goals for Sheperds. Talia Wall DiGiuseppe displayed good footwork and ball control for the Sheperds. The nets were minded by Keira Brodie and Taylor Carey for the Sheperds. The Hawkeyes countered with good goaltending by Gregor Demarsh and Nicholas Hoffman. Caitlyn McComb played a solid offensive game and Kathleen Foley showed her grit by bouncing right back from an injury and playing the next shift.

Halton Region Pest Control 2
Westcom 1
This spine-tingling contest featured spectacular end to end rushes forcing goaltenders from both squads to be in top form. H.R.P.C.'s Adam Evans used his blazing speed to break free and score the game's first goal despite a brilliant effort by Westcom's keeper Delaney Moore. H.R.P.C.'s striker, Micheal Warner, fired a well-placed shot to score the second goal of the half. Under relentless pressure from the creative footwork of Westcom's Graydon Wessinger and the powerful blasts from Peter Gunn, H.R.P.C.'s Chris Woods made several breathtaking saves to keep Westcom off the board in the first half. Spirited rushes by Westcom's Draven Stokes and Brent Devoe finally paid off as Brent penetrated H.R.P.C.'s defense and blasted a shot for the goal. Jennifer Haringa fearlessly faced a barrage of cowhide to hold Westcom off the board for the remainder of the game. Phillip Wells played a flawless second half in the Westcom goal. Specials mention to Bridget Lanois and Aislinn Fisher for a strong effort.

Southview Dental Group 1
Halton Recycling 0
The weather finally co-operated on Thursday as Southview Dental with Rachel Davis in goal faced off against goalie Clark Walters and the Halton Recycling squad. The first half saw the play go back and forth with great team defence from Halton Recycling. The second half started much the same way the first had ended. There was a wild scramble in front of Andrew Schneider in the Halton goal and the ball found the back of the net off the foot of Southview's Ayla Blackburn. Evan Howell backstopped the Southview Dental group in the 2nd half to preserve the shutout. It was a well-played and exciting game.

Under 9 Girls

Canadian Tire 1
Arthur Electric 6
Arthur Electric came out fighting hard to gain the lead early in the game. Goal scorers Erin Aurthur, Madison Hadlow, Rebecca Hinton and Nicole Seller kept Arthur Electric ahead the first half. Canadian Tire tried their best to stop their opponents. Good defensive play by Victoria Gazzola and Marina Roncato and excellent goal keeping by Paige Atkinson gave Canadian Tire some hope. However in the end Canadian Tire could not keep up with the fast paced game played by Arthur Electric. Special mention to the unstoppable goalies of Arthur Electric Chantal Hatton and Megan Robertson.

Clayson Steel Inc 5
Millweld Enterprises 2
Millweld enterprises goalie Kayla Wagg was kept busy both halves and did a great job fending off shots from Clayson Steel's forwards. Clayson Steel goalies Joson Levan and Rachel Taube held Millweld off to 1 goal each half. Goal scorers for Millweld Enterprises were Jenna Wilson and Nicole Burgess. Millweld's Kaitlyn Bell drew a big cheer from the crowd with an incredible sliding tackle to prevent a goal attempt. Teammate Stephanie Larkin was an asset to the Millweld team, worked hard and showed strong skills. Clayson Steel's Rebecca Kingson showed some great defensive play, raising the ball with a powerful kick. Clayson defense players Kiki Kay and Whitney Thistle played a strong game. Goal scorers for Clayson Steel were Alexis Watts, Joson Levan and Jennifer Wormald.

Sardenall Greenhouses 4
Clayson Steel Inc 1
Sardenall Greenhouses came out fighting with Corinne Lintack scoring early in the game. Rachel Grant, Clayson Steels first goalkeeper, fought back hard saving many shots on net. Sardenall Greenhouse's girls kept on attacking with Jessie Saliba, Brooke Belvedere and Victoria Delnin all scoring on Clayson's net. The second half had Clayson Steel's girls playing as strong as steel, with Joson Levan scoring against Sardenall Greenhouses. Great goal keeping by all goalies. Sardenall Greenhouses keepers were Emma Lammers and Teagan Sidsworth. Clayson Steels keepers were Rachel Grant and Danielle Tremblay.

Millweld Enterprises Canadian Tire
Goalies: Kayla, Cassandra and Christie Graybeck and Rachel Fisher. Goals: Nicole and Victoria Gazzola (2). Players deserving special mention were Ainsley Robertson, Marina Roncato of the Canadian Tire team and Sarah & Nicole & Jenna great defense play for Millweld.

Deerhurst Electrical 4
Hydro One 0
Lots of energy from the girls helped Deerhurst Electrical win this game. Goaltenders for Deerhurst Electrical were Jessica Gaudreault and Cassie Davidson. A great effort was put forth by Hydro One team to help Krystal Reid and Sarah Millar in net. Good defense was played by Emily Churchill, Vanessa Hartwick and Avalon Sinyi to try and shut down Deerhurst Electrical. Alyssa Dodson, Katie Croft and Megan Wain (2) were the goal scorers for Deerhurst Electrical.

Hydro One 1
Chadwick's Travel 5
Chadwick's Travel, led by the impressive play of Marissa Renn and Brianne Molner were too powerful an offensive force to be held off by Hydro One. Lots of end-to-end rushes made for an exciting game. The outstanding play of Courtney Whetham, fabulous defense of Rose Serafini and solid goaltending of Krystal Reid kept Hydro One in the game, but they couldn't match the awesome scoring power of Jennifer David, Lauren Mead, Page Dugay and Brianne Molner for Chadwick's Travel. Allyson MacDonald scored hydro One's lone goal. Lots of great goaltending by Krystal Reid and Sydney Sandluck for Hydro One and Madison Garner and Courtney Dumouchel for Chadwick's Travel.

Chadwick's Travel 5
Arthur Electric 0
Lena Halliday and Chantal Hatton did a great job in goal against Brianne Molnar of Chadwick's who scored 3 goals. Also contributing for Chadwick's were Jennifer David and Emma Smith with one apiece. Although Angela Bueton fought hard for Arthur Electric, Chadwick's goalies Lynsay Watson and Marissa Renn prevented a goal.

Under 9 Boys

Milton Physiotherapy 4
Vanier Insurance 1
Great game by Milton Physio and Vanier Insurance with goals scored by Colin Maltby, Jake Zomer, Colin Scarffe and Luke Boivin. Amazing goaltending by Colin Scarffe and Jake Zomer of Milton Physio. Special mention to Steven Chmurzynski for his outstanding role in defense.

241 Pizza 1
Milton Physiotherapy 2
Milton Physio struck first with a goal by Colin Maltby. Paul Munday tied the game with a goal for 241 Pizza. The fantastic goalkeeping by goaltenders Julian Coobs and Andrew Borthwick of 241 and Konur Ozcan and Connor Sutherland of Milton Physio kept the score low. The tie-breaking goal was scored in the second half by Colin Maltby. Excellent defensive work and passing by Colin Scarffe and Ryan Lane, both of Milton Physiotherapy.

Loblaws 2
It was a close game between Zellers and Loblaws. Scoring for Zellers were Jeremy Lavioie (2) and Domenic Masci. Scoring the 2 goals for Loblaws was Michael Lobb. Dylan Blanchard and Christian Pinheiro did an outstanding job as goalies for Zellers. Goal tenders Johnny Scremin and Dustin Lee both had some brilliant saves. Cody South and Drew McMillen played a strong defense for Zellers. For Loblaws, Bradley Alford and James Pattison deserve special mention for playing a great game.

M&M Meats 3
Milton Jaycees 2
Teddy Liptay, Kevin Entmaa, and Tyler Ganly were a definite force for M&M Meats each scoring one goal, but not to be outdone Taylor Cross and Greg Fox replied to make this game very interesting for the Milton Jaycees. The goalies kept this one close, Michael Gingras, Taylor Cross and Alex Krane for the Jaycees and Teddy Liptay and Mack Baillie for M&M. A deserving nod for exceptional effort goes out to Andre Rowe from the Jaycees and to Kenny Pickett and Connor Brodie for M&M.

Stop N' Cash 5
241 Pizza 4
Despite the rainy weather, Stop N' Cash and 241 Pizza had an action packed game. Tyler McKinnon and Wesley Croall-Moore were a force to be reckoned with scoring 2 goals each for Stop N' Cash as well Stephen Fitzsimmons who scored once. George Stanford was unstoppable for 241 Pizza scoring three goals and Julian Coobs also played great scoring one goal. Quinn Pucci and Matthew McCusker played awesome in goal for Stop N' Cash and Julian Coobs and Andrew Barthwick were excellent goalies for 241 Pizza. Great effort was put forth by all, especially by Paul Munday for 241 Pizza. Tom Robin and Tom Harris also played great for Stop N' Cash.

Aim, Lock and Safe 2
Hodge Transport 4
Despite miserable weather conditions and a slippery field, an excellent game was played by both teams. Aim, Lock and Safe goalies Mitchell Adamson and Matthew Luce gave their best efforts for a good cause, as did netminders Myles Ramsey and Justin Davidson for Hodge Transport. Robert Hunt charged the net to score 2 goals for Hodge Transport, while being assisted by Daniel Guarini and Nathan Brown. Also scoring for Hodge Transport were Kenneth Paguaga and Gareth Browne. A pair of excellent goals was scored in first half by Aim, Lock and Safe player William Skoryk. Ross Mergan provided numerous scoring chances for Aim Lock and Safe through his constant hustle. Richard Durante played brilliantly on defense for Hodge Transport, while Jason DaSilva utilized the whole field to set up many of Hodge Transports breakouts.

Towne Dental Group 3
Loblaws 6
The wet and muddy field was not a problem for Towne Dental Group or Loblaws. Connor Ramsden scored 3 skillful goals for Towne Dental Group. Scoring for Loblaws was Lorenzo Scremin, Evan Rudd, Cole Howick, Tyler Brown (2) and James Pattison. Johnny Scremin and Michael Lobb did an impressive job for Loblaws as goalies. Goaltenders Steven Whitlow and Satvir Grewal of Towne Dental made Loblaws work hard for their goals. Dynamite performances by Tijn van Baars and Jimmy Braitwaite of Towne Dental Group. For Loblaws, Dustin Lee and Taylor Moks showed top-notch teamwork.

Nadalin Electric 1
The rain held off just long enough for the ref to blow the game-ending whistle on the match between Zellers and Nadalin Electric, that saw Zellers come away with a 2-1 victory. It was a brilliant game with spectators marveling at the skill level demonstrated by both teams. All four goalkeepers, Greg Logie and Dalan Blanchard for Zellers and Dale Murdych and Collin Seal for Nadalin Electric were outstanding in net. Connor Prince opened the scoring for Nadalin Electric in the first half and remained the only goal scorer for his team. Zellers' Christian Pinheiro, with an assist from Spencer Page, tied the game early in the second half but it was Zellers' Jeremy Lavioie, on a pass from Drew McMillen, that put in the game winner with only a few minutes remaining in the game. Outstanding defensive play from Zellers' Cody South, Greg Logie and Drew McMillen in the second half kept Nadalin Electric from dominating.

Vanier Insurance Adjusters 1
Milton Physio 4
There was no rain but Milton Physio poured it on jumping to an early 2 goal lead, and then as Vanier Adjuster scored to get within a goal, Milton Physio came back with another 2 goals to seal the game. Milton Physio goals scored by Colin Maltby, Jake Zomer, Luke Boivin, and Colin Scarffe. Colin Scarffe and Jake Zomer defended the Milton Physio goal posts. Vaniers only goal was scored by Mitchell Verch while Adam Schembri and Nolan Jeppesen made some great saves while defending the Vanier net. Special Mentions go to Milton Physio's Steven Chmurzynski for making some great defensive plays and Vaniers Hayden Brodigan for making some excellent passes.

Vanier Insurance Adjusters 3
Hodge Transport 10
Hodge Transport was too fast and too furious for the Adjusters and came off with a big win early in the season. Although it was a closer game than the score indicated with some great plays from both teams, it was Hodges performance stole the show as Gareth Brown scored a double hat trick 6 goals, and Kenneth Paguaga scored 2 goals and Eric Goncalves and Daniel Guarini scored 1 goal each. Hodge goalies Eric Goncalves and Daniel Guarini were light on their feet and made some great saves. Vanier Insurance Adjusters had many chances with Brandon Borisavjevic scoring 1 goal and Max Michaelis scoring 2 goals while Steven Pantusa and David Cramer blocked some fantastic shots while guarding the Vanier net.
