

Charity golf tourney runs July 25

Canada's deaf hockey program — which in recent years has included some local players — is hoping to maintain its world championship status.

But for that to happen it'll need a financial assist from the community.

With that in mind, national team organizers are bringing back the John Guirestante Memorial Golf Tournament to Granite Ridge Golf Club July 25.

Started last year, the charity event — held in memory of the hearing-impaired New Jersey Devils prospect who died of pneumonia in 2001 — was an overwhelming success, allowing Team Canada to travel to Sweden in March and defend its gold medal.

Among the members of the two-time championship squad was Miltonian Mark Couture, an assistant captain who helped anchor the blue line.

The Canadians will be gunning for a coveted threepeat in 2007 in Utah, but will need the continued success of such events as the local golf tournament for that to be possible.

A $130 entry fee includes the cost of dinner and golfing, while individual and corporate donations are also welcome.

Those wishing to sponsor or participate in the tournament are asked to call Ralph Nunnaro at (905) 854-4002 or Norm Brownell at (905) 878-0752.

Local CASCAR vets ready for Toronto Indy

Campbellville's Robin Buck will be aiming to establish a new fraternity when he heads onto the track tomorrow.

The CASCAR veteran is looking to become the only three-time Toronto Molson Indy winner — having taken the checkered flag in both 1999 and 2001. Hopes for another victory were dashed last year, when he was outdistanced down the stretch and placed third.

Buck has undergone a sponsorship change this season and will only be competing in the one CASCAR Super Series event.

Miltonians John Fletcher, Howie Scannell Jr. and Scott Watkins will round out the local contingent at the CNE tomorrow.

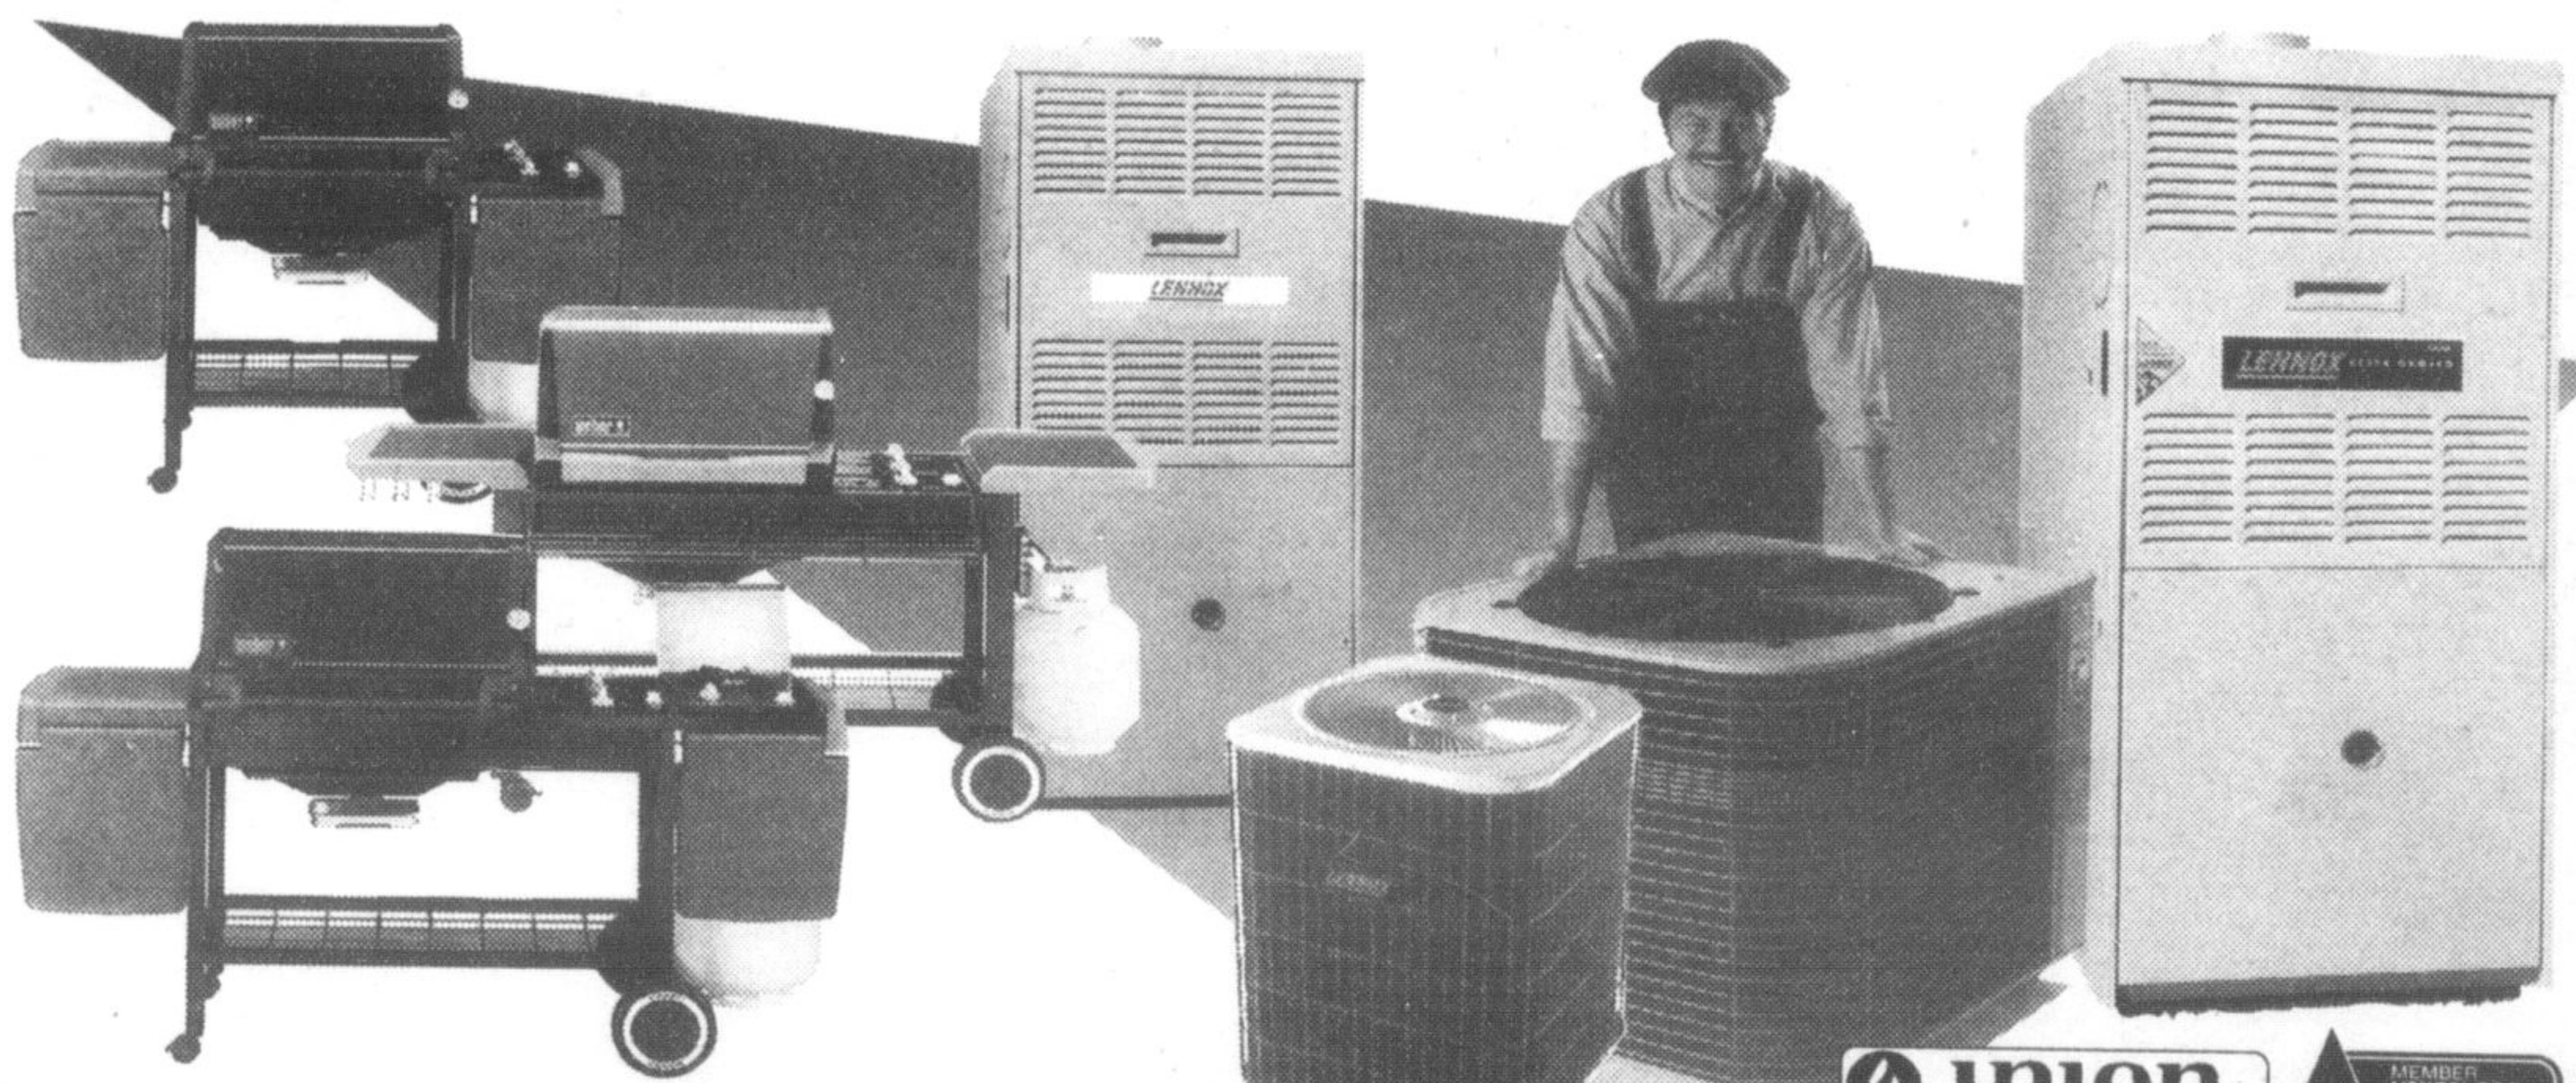

Those unable to attend tomorrow's festivities can catch all the action on CTV Sportsnet (Cable 44) on Monday, July 28 at 7 p.m.
