Knox Vacation Bible School held this month

For parents who need a break and kids who need some fun, Knox Presbyterian Church will once again hold its annual Vacation Bible School.

It'll take place July 21 to 25 from 9 a.m. to noon each day at the church, 170 Main St.

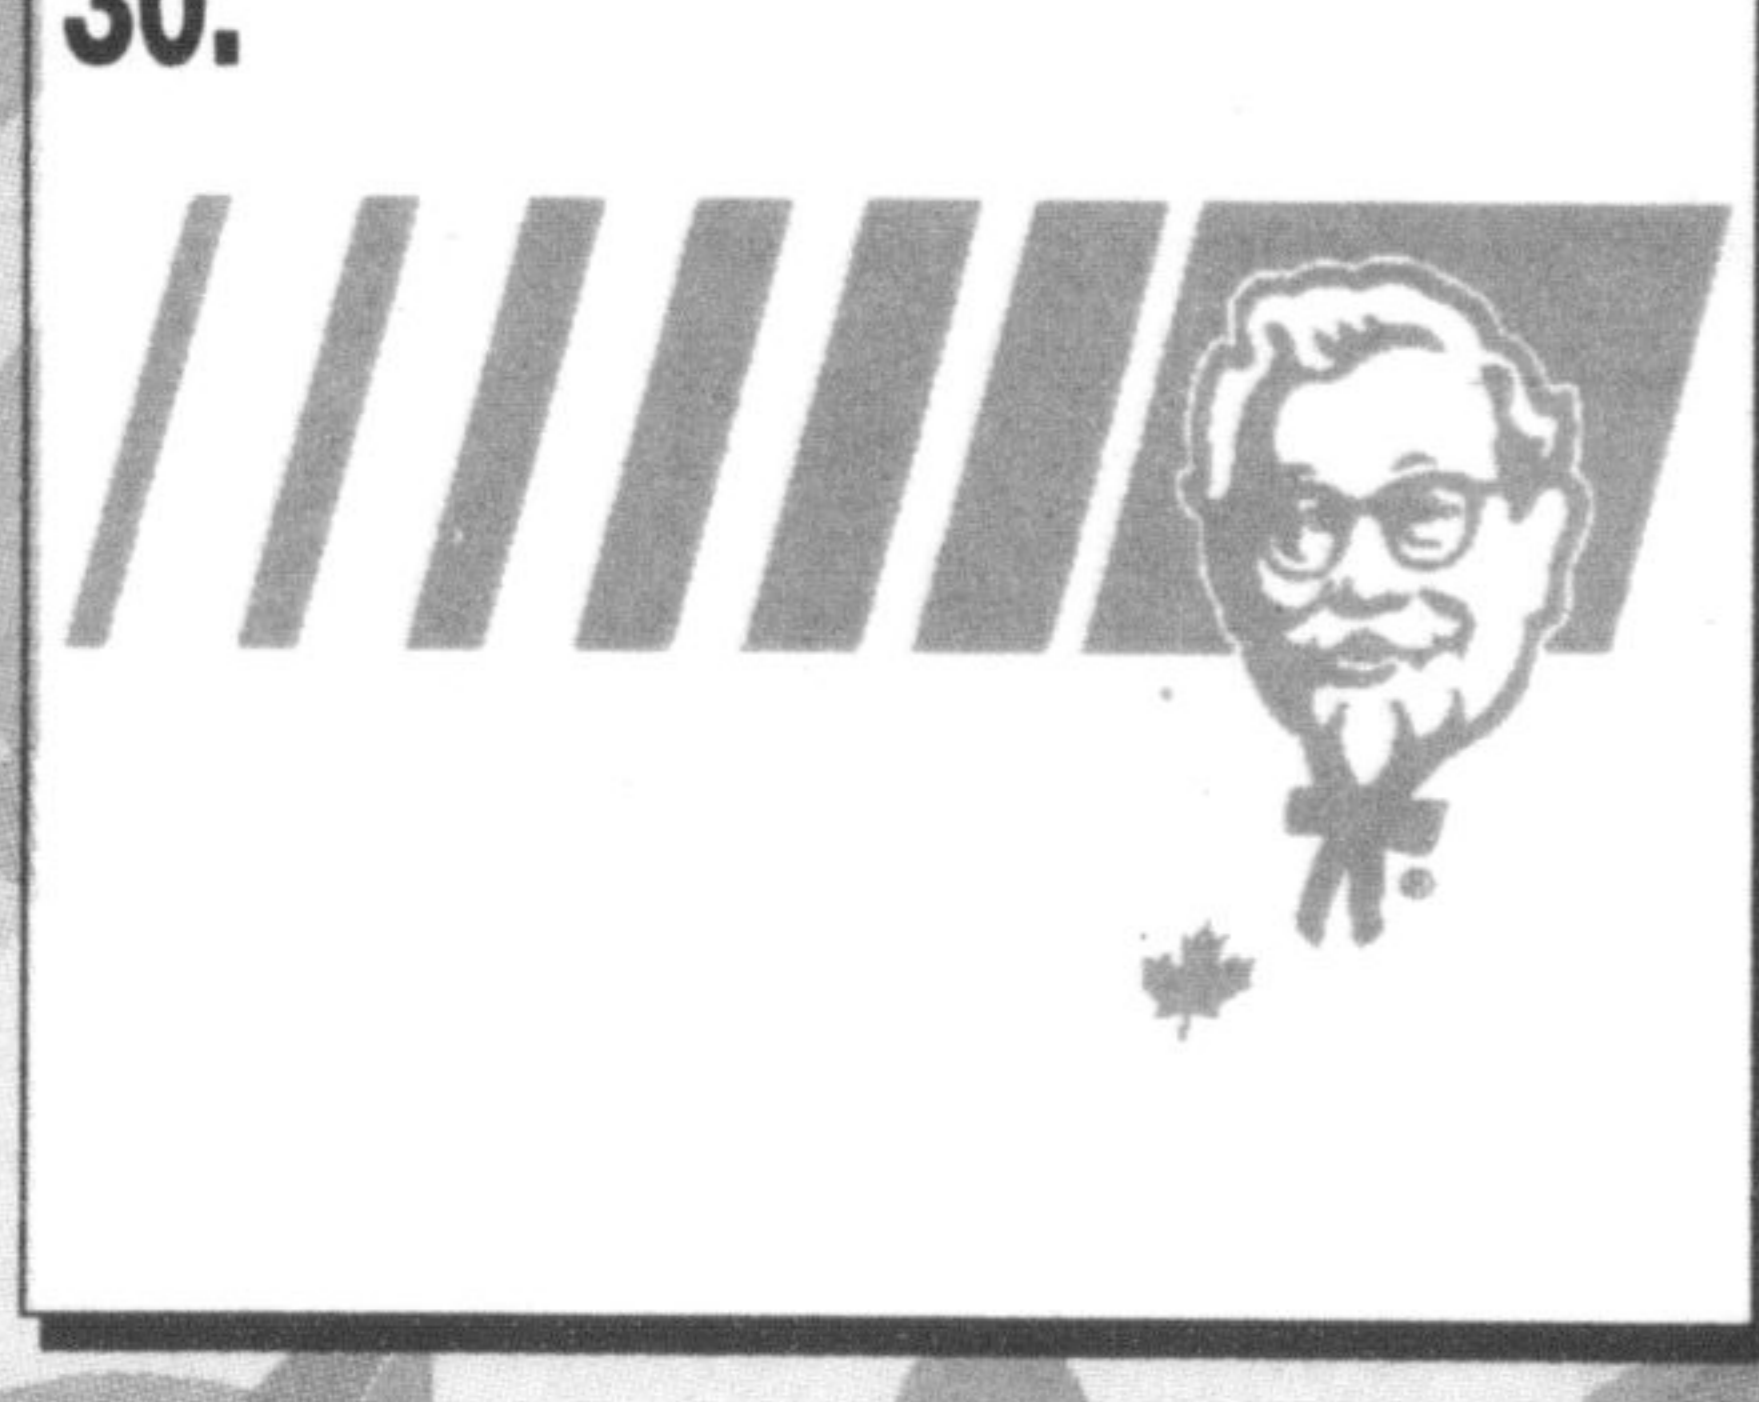

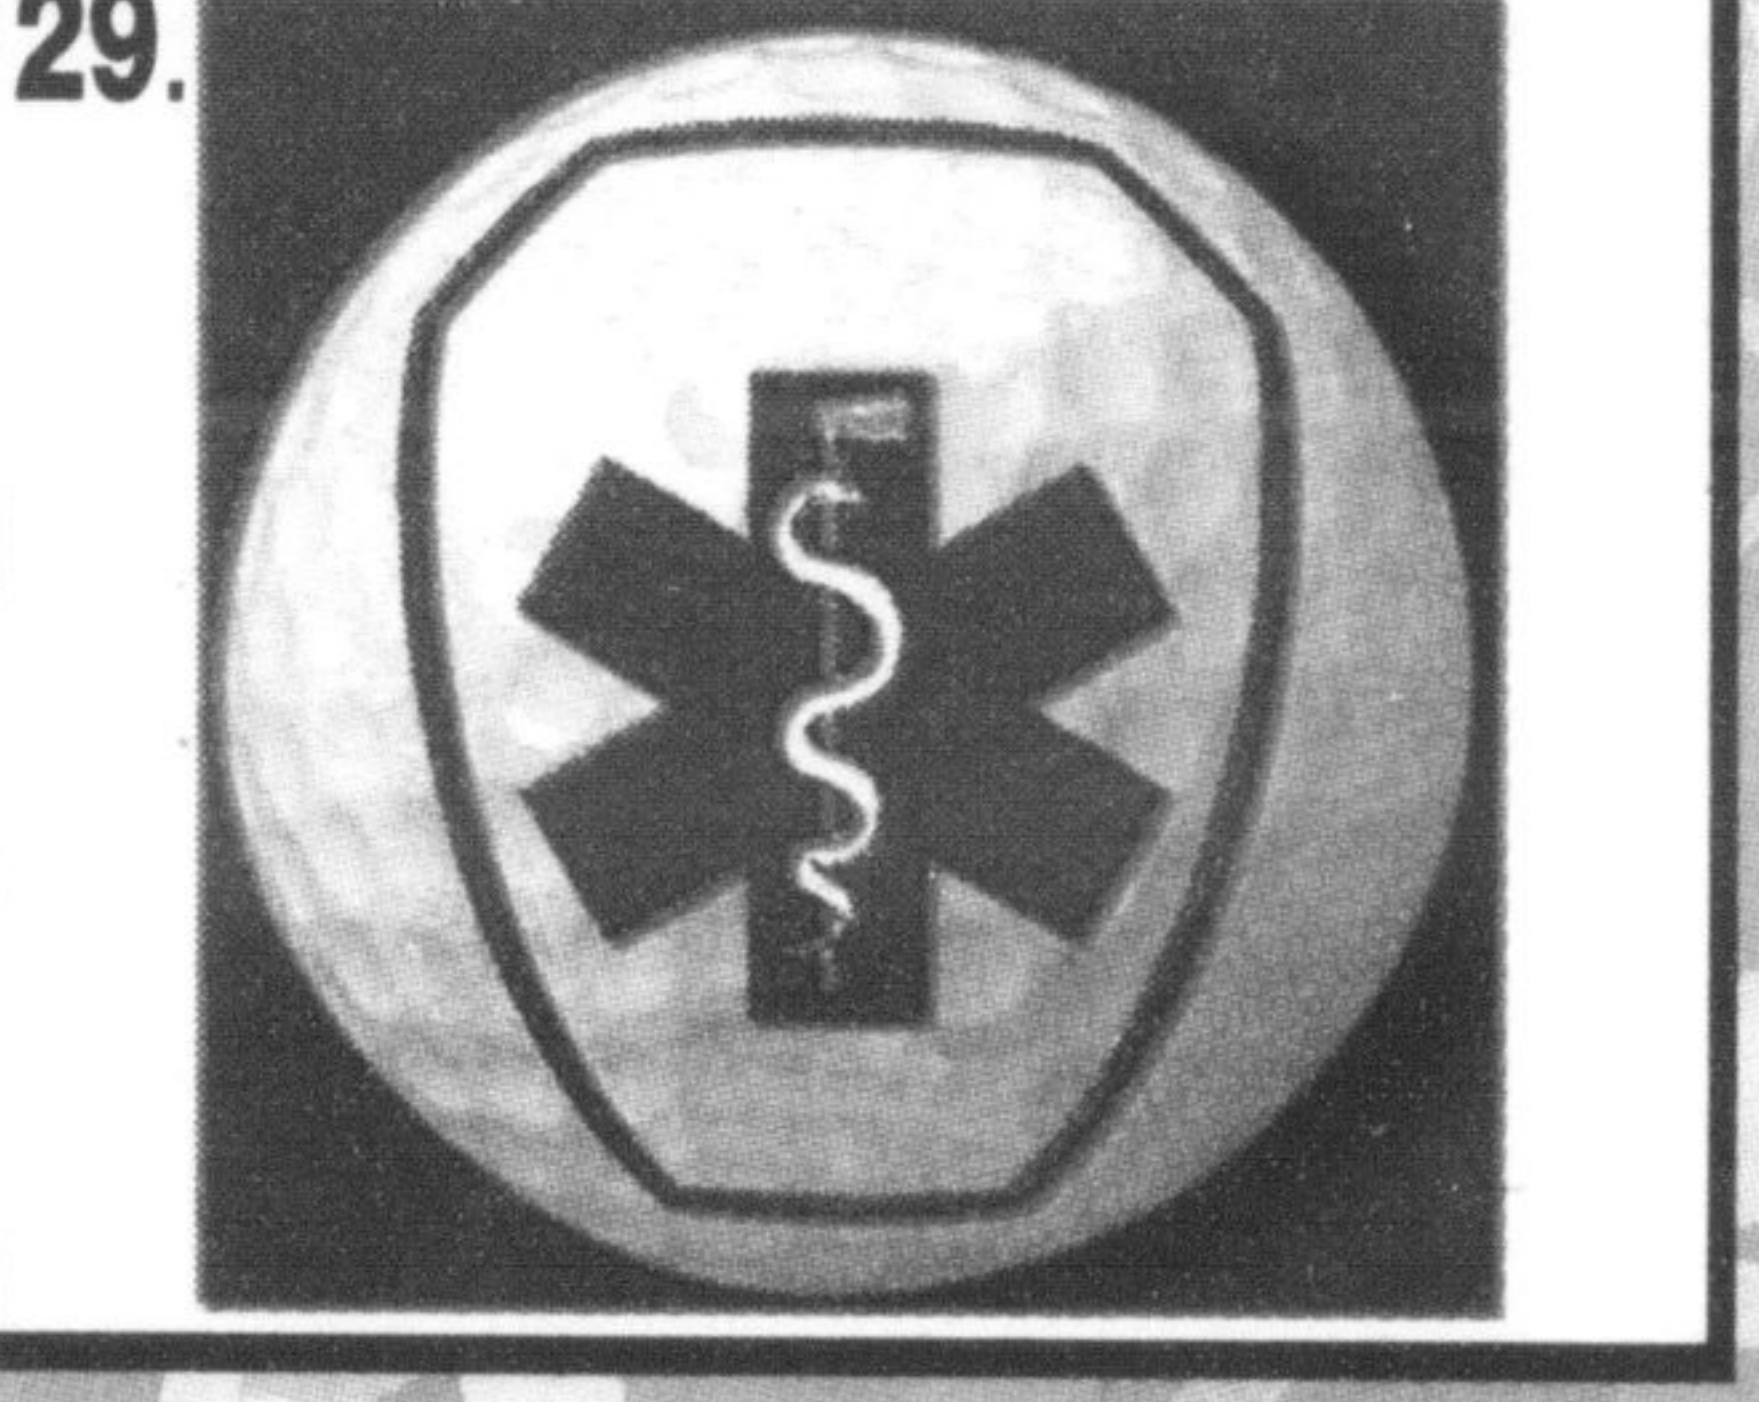

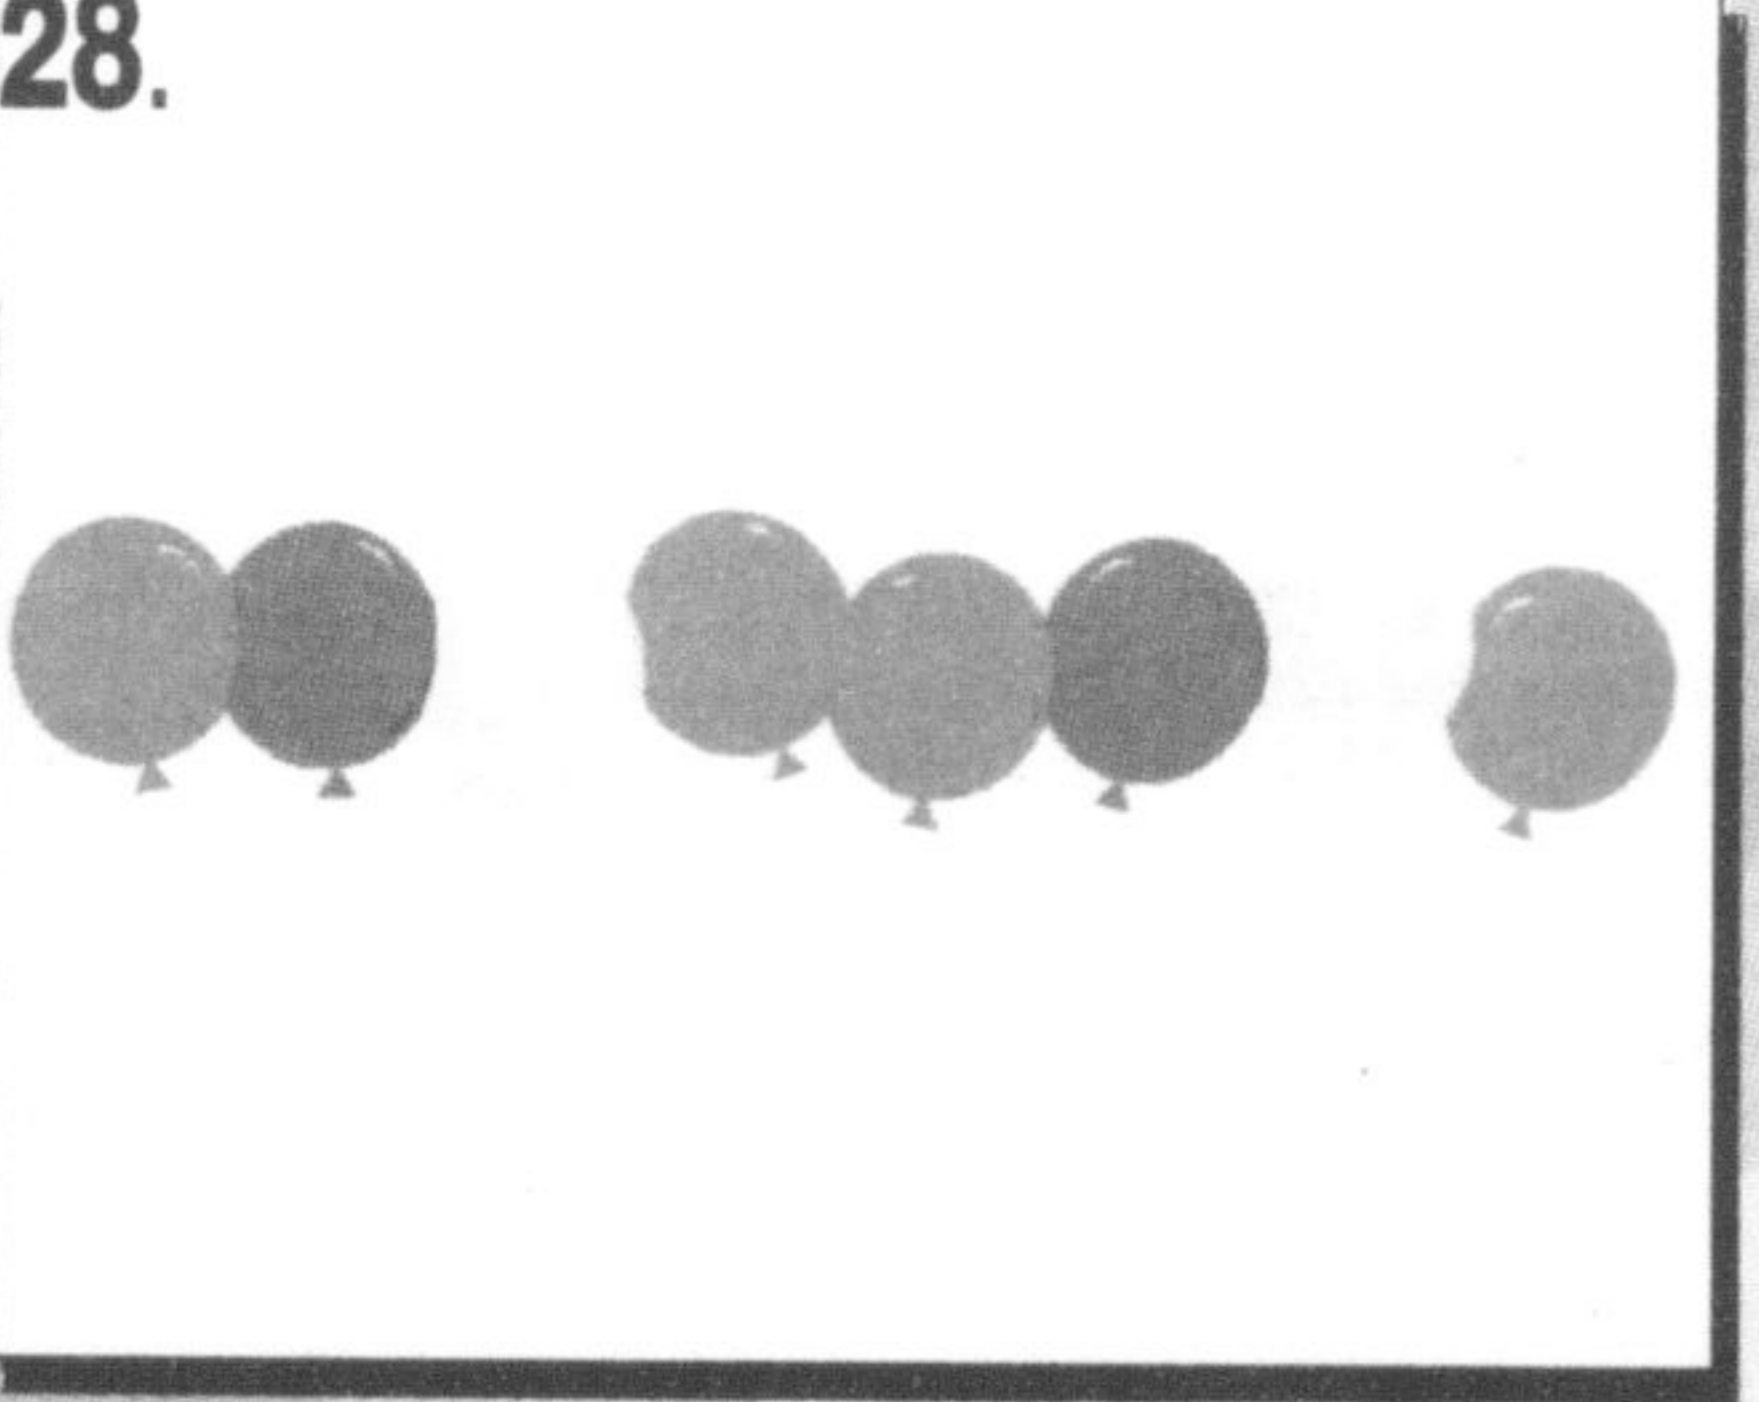

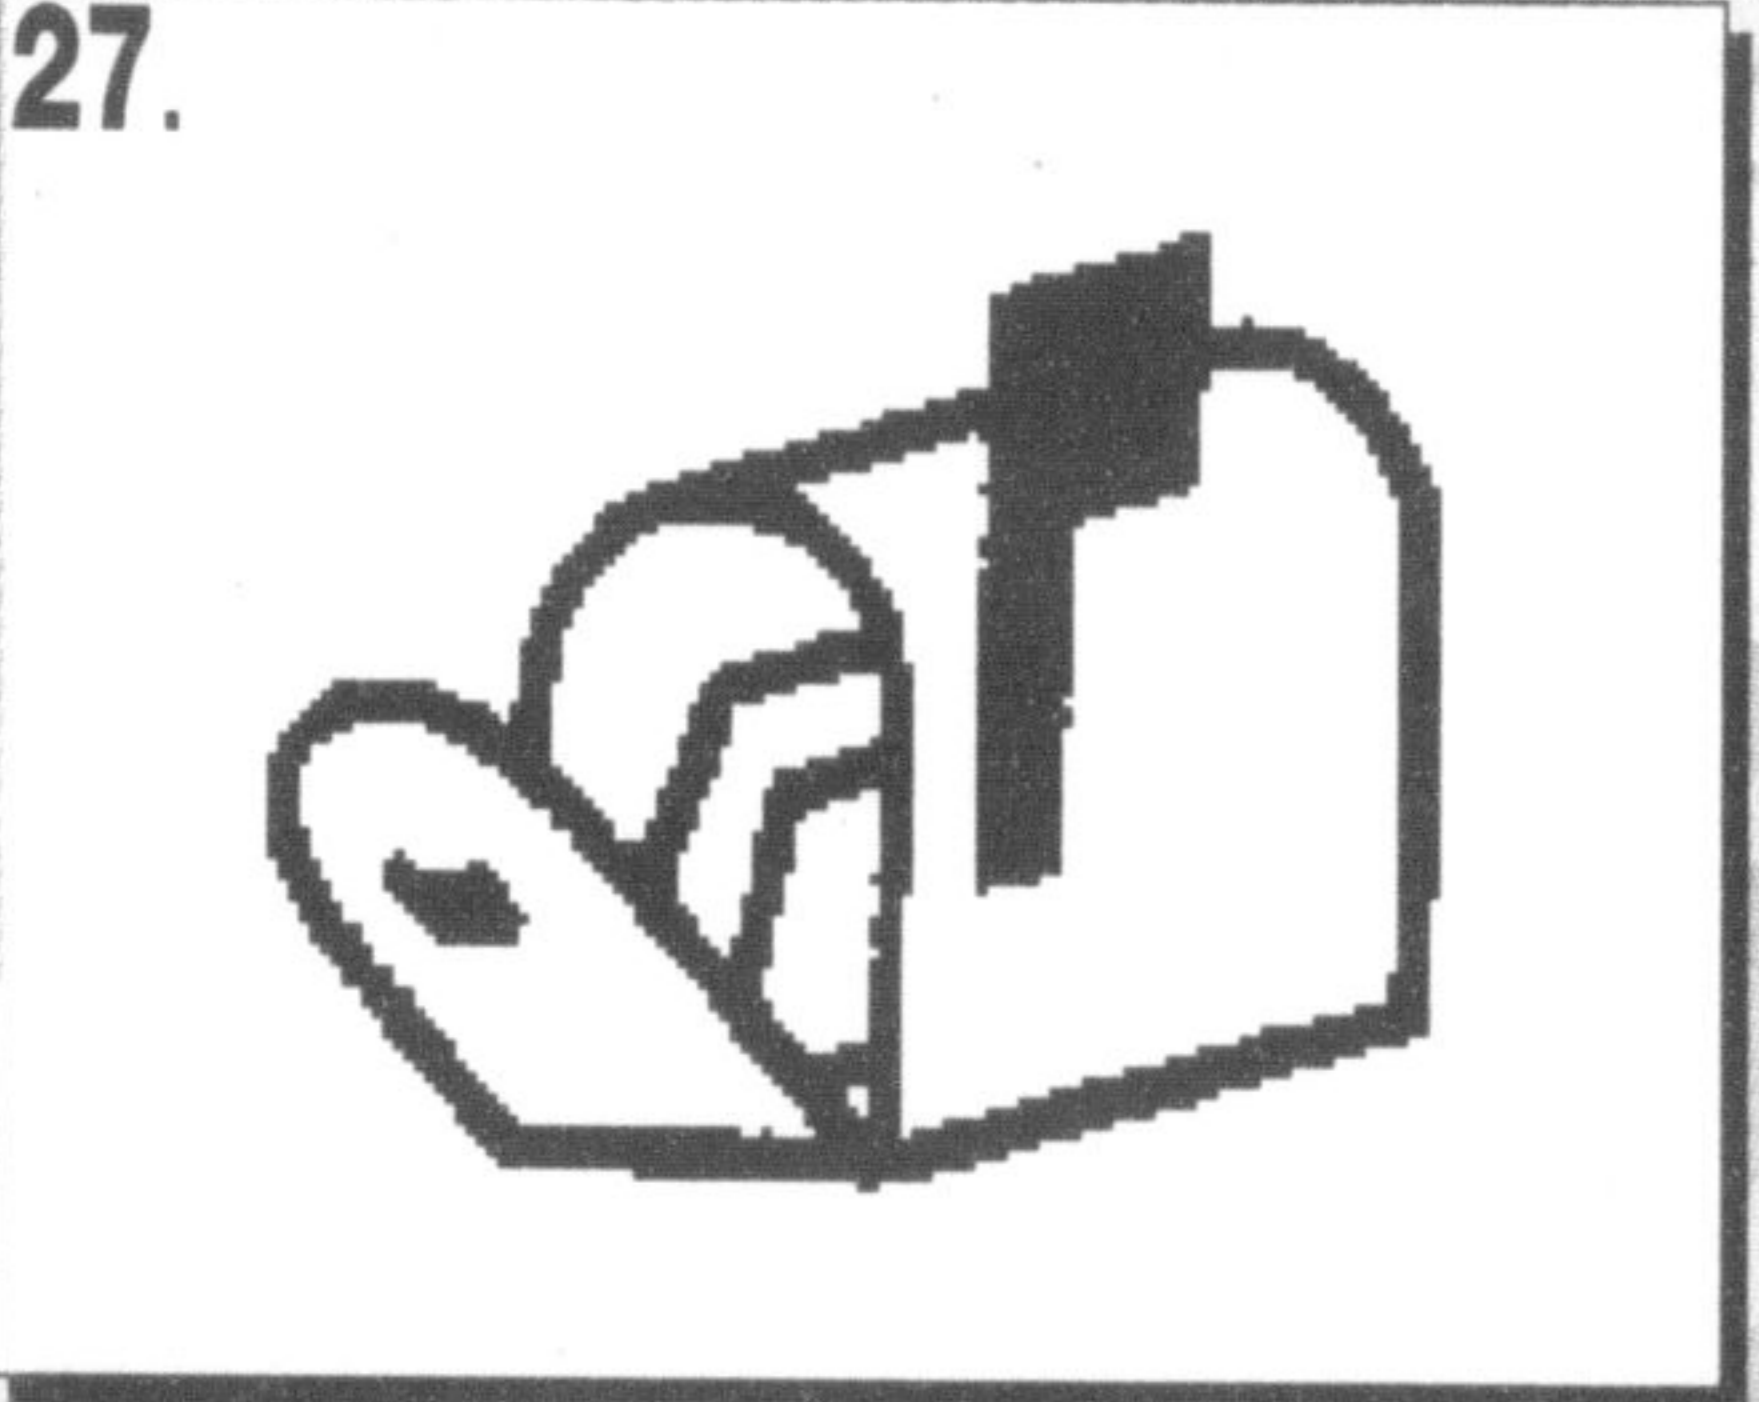

E. The free program for children aged 4 to 11 years is open to all children in the community.

Each day will include activities such as crafts, Bible stories, music times and snacks. As well, children will take a day trip to a nearby farm. The activities will all illustrate the program's theme, Fruits of the Spirit. There will also be a parent/child barbecue one evening.

Parents must register their children by Friday by calling Amy at (905) 878-9873.
