

100-year-old woman to lead milestone tractor parade tomorrow

Lottie Schneider doesn't care who knows her age. She's 100 years old, and proud of it.

Tomorrow, Ms Schneider — who was born in Nassageweya — will make history as she takes the wheel of a vintage Ford tractor and leads a parade of antique tractors at the All Colour

Antique Tractor and Toy Show.

The show will take place at Country Heritage Park tomorrow and Sunday beginning at 8:30 a.m. each day. Ms Schneider will begin tomorrow's parade at 3:30 p.m. The parade coincides with Ford Motor Company's 100th anniversary.

Milton resident Helen Kennedy, Lottie's great niece, said she's delighted Ms Schneider will lead the parade and drive her husband's tractor.

"She is a fabulous lady and is so looking forward to driving Carl's 1948 Ford 8 N tractor." The All Colour Antique Tractor and Toy Show will feature tractor exhibits, tractor pulls, lawn tractor pulls, a scale model toy show and sale, stationary engines, antique cars and trucks, plus the regular line-up of heritage exhibit buildings. A special feature will be the lawn tractor races tomorrow at 7 p.m.
