FARMERS' MARKET UPDATE

The 2003 Milton Chamber of Commerce Farmers' Market has proven to be even more successful this year as both attendance and sales have increased thanks to a new marketing "cow campaign," visits from loyal market shoppers, and visits from new shoppers! Milton's population has now reached 45,000 and luckily, many new Milton residents have made the Main Street Farmers' Market one of their Saturday morning rituals. Proceeds from the Farmers' Market Scholarship Café (bacon-on-a-bun) fund the Chamber of Commerce Scholarship Fund, which has stretched itself from giving $2,000 in scholarships last year to $4,500 this year due to the double cohort. Two scholarships each will go to Milton District High School, Bishop Reding High School and E.C. Drury High School. One scholarship will go to E.C. Drury School for the Deaf (one graduating class) and one will go to a Junior Achievement Scholarship.

ATTENTION CHAMBER MEMBERS AND NON-MEMBERS! OUR BUSINESS DIRECTORY IS THE BUSINESS DIRECTORY!

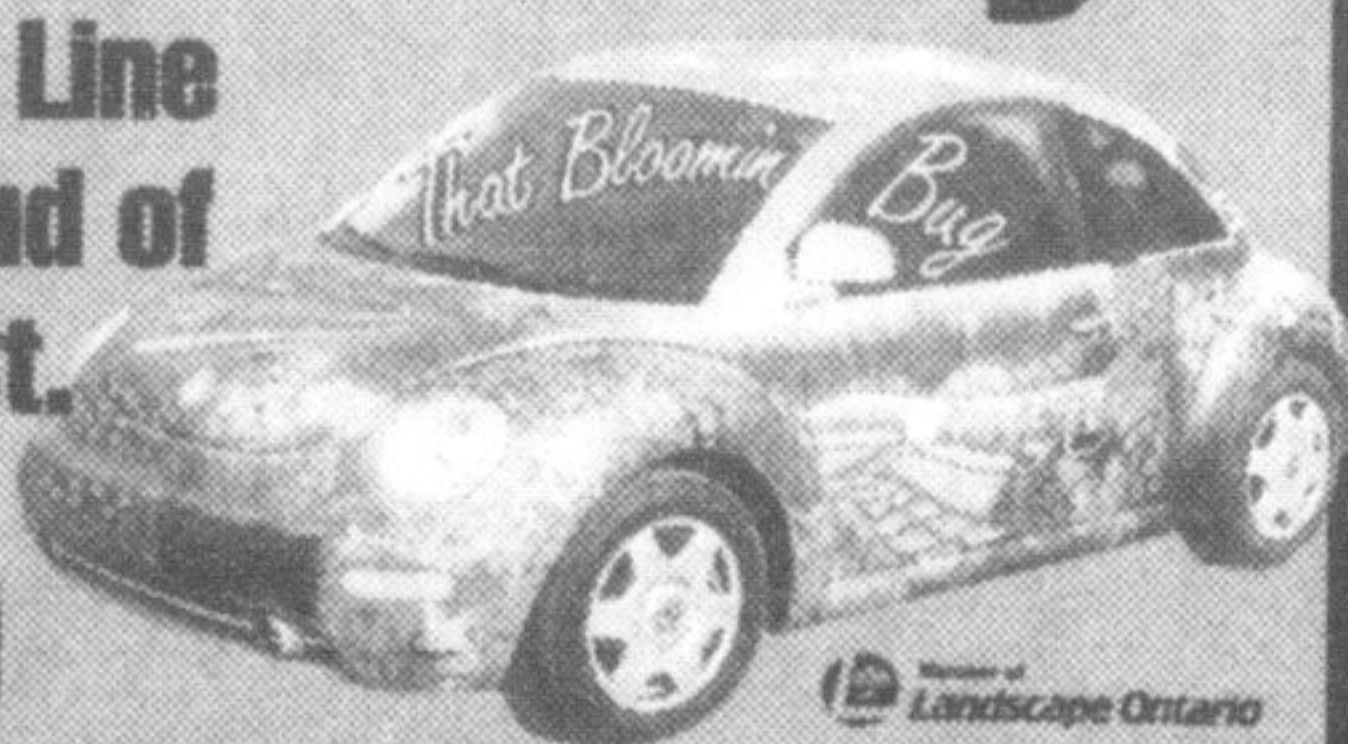

The Milton Chamber of Commerce Business Directory is the only complete listing of all businesses in the Milton/Campbellville area. The Business Directory is distributed to all businesses and homes in the area. It is our most sought-after publication, offered free of charge, year-round at our Chamber office. 18,000 copies in total are distributed. So as a friendly reminder....

1. Call Andrea Boyle or Barb Campbell today to reserve your space.
2. Ensure your business information is correct and updated. If changes are to be made, contact Alana Takaki at the Chamber.
3. Consider advertising in this premier piece. It reaches everyone.
4. Watch your business grow!
