TRAVEL ADVISOR

You have outstanding sales and consultation skills allowing your strong sense of urgency to drive and exceed your targets. You demonstrate the exceptional communication skills necessary to provide high quality service to customer travel clients, with an emphasis on building business and long-term relationships. Drawing on your 3 to 5 years of travel experience in an IATA agency, you will sell a full range of preferred supplier products, provide accurate travel information, organize business building promotions, and assist with the resolution of client issues. You are adept at handling multiple tasks simultaneously, developing a large client base, and working effectively in a team environment. Knowledge of general accounting, Sabre, other travel products and the airline reservations system is required.

We offer a competitive total compensation package, benefits package and travel benefits, plus the opportunity to develop in a fast-paced, growing company.

If you're interested, please forward your resume to:
