

Teen sought in break-in

Police are looking for a boy in his early teens in connection with a break-in at a Main Street martial arts studio.

At about noon September 25, a man arrived at the studio and saw a male breaking into the studio's office.

The suspect fled through the same window he entered. He was last seen running northbound on Ontario Street.

Nothing was taken from the studio.

Police are looking for a white, baby-faced male in his early teens who's about five-foot-four with a chubby build and a pale complexion.

He was wearing a dark blue or black sweater with red patches on the sleeve, blue jeans and a multi-coloured beanie.

He was carrying a black or purple knapsack.

Anyone with information is asked to call Det. Brian Smith at (905) 878-5511, ext. 2416.
