

Young Milton man running, cutting hair for cancer research

Milton resident Shaun Galbraith, 22, wanted to do something to honour his aunt, who passed away from breast cancer a number of years ago.

So, this year he's joining his parents, sister and brother-in-law in CIBC's Run for the Cure, which will take place Sunday in Burlington. Money raised from the annual event goes to the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation.

His team is named Donna's Angels, after his aunt. Last year, the group raised almost $4,000, which was $1,000 more than the previous year. This year, they've set a goal of $5,000.

In addition to collecting pledges for the run, Mr. Galbraith will also be cutting off his hair and donating it to Angel Hair for Kids, which provides wigs and hair prostheses to financially disadvantaged kids who have lost their hair undergoing chemotherapy, radiation therapy, in burn accidents and as a result of other medical issues.

Those who want to sponsor Mr. Galbraith can call him at (905) 878-5617 or mail a cheque to 472 Commercial St., Milton, Ont., L9T 3R1.

Firefighters support MD

Milton residents will be urged to give generously on their way to tomorrow's farmers' market.

From about 7 a.m. until noon, firefighters with the Milton Professional Firefighters' Association will hold their first Boot Drive.

A number of firefighters, along with some wives and girlfriends, will be stationed at the intersection of Main and Martin streets. When the light turns red, they'll approach cars, each holding out a boot and encouraging drivers to drop in their spare coins, or maybe even a few paper bills — after all, it's for a good cause. The money collected will go to the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada.

Boot drive organizer and Acting Captain Mike Clouston said he had one thing he'd like to tell the public: "Don't run me over!"

On a more serious note, Mr. Clouston said he encourages Miltonians to participate generously in the boot drive. "It's for a worthy cause," he stressed.

The Great Escape Artist: Harry Houdini

Robert Schuller, Founding pastor of the Crystal Cathedral and the Host of television's Hour of Power tells the fascinating story of the legendary, late Harry Houdini. Famed as being the greatest escape artist who ever lived, that masterful magician was probably a better locksmith than he was a magician. He had a standing challenge that he could get out of any locked jail in sixty minutes, providing they would let him enter in his regular street clothes and not watch him work. A little town in the British Isles decided to challenge (and perhaps embarrass) the great Houdini. This town had just completed an escape-proof jail, and so the townsfolk invited Houdini to come to see if he could break out. He accepted the challenge. He was allowed to enter the jail in his street clothes. People say they saw the locksmith turn the lock some strange way, and then with a clang of steel, everybody turned their backs and left him alone to work. Houdini had hidden a long flexible steel rod in his belt, which is what he used to try to trip the lock. He worked for thirty minutes. He kept his ear close to the lock — forty-five minutes, and then an hour passed; he was perspiring. After two hours, he was exhausted. He leaned against the door, and to his amazement, it fell open. They had never locked the door! It was their trick on the great escape artist! The door was locked only in Houdini's mind. That's the only place it was locked! Some of you think that you can't overcome your problem. Often, the only place where it is impossible is in your mind or in your thinking — that's the only thing that's locked! To discover how you can open the door of faith and possibility in your mind, and to understand the benefits of a relationship with God, visit a local church this week. Service times and locations are published in the Religious directory below. Don't delay — make plans today! Submitted by Rev. Dan Rogge, Senior Pastor of New Life Church, Milton.
