

Lending a helping hand

Legion volunteers wanted

The Royal Canadian Legion's Milton branch is looking for a few good volunteers.

While Legions need extra help at this time — in preparation for Remembrance Day ceremonies — there's plenty of spaces open for year-round contributions.

Potential volunteers can get involved in a number of areas, including seniors programs, youth sports, youth education and charitable foundations.

Those eager to help out are asked to call (905) 878-4881, or drop by the Milton Legion at 21 Charles St.

On Monday November 10th...
