Chorus ready to compete out east

A Cappella Showcase, Milton's barbershop-style chorus for women, will compete November 13 to 15 in Halifax, N.S. The chorus will compete in the Harmony Inc. International Contest and Convention.

A Cappella Showcase is a chorus of 82 women who sing four-part harmony, a cappella style. The chorus is currently an international silver medalist and a gold medalist in its area. Now it's working toward its dream of winning an international gold medal.

Organizers said they'd like to recognize the support of the Town of Milton which, through its Community Fund, purchased four step risers and back-rail supports the group will use in its competition.

Choristers set to go

The Milton Choristers, one of the oldest performing community choirs in Ontario, is set to begin its 35th concert season this month.

The season will kick off November 22 and 23 with a traditional concert entitled 'A Victorian Christmas' at Knox Presbyterian Church on Main Street. The concert begins at 7:30 p.m. November 22, and at 3 p.m. November 23.

Choristers members will then turn their attention to preparations for the 35th anniversary gala celebration, which will be held May 30 at the Mississauga Living Arts Centre. The Choristers will be joined by the Georgetown Bach Chorale.

Hot on the heels of the gala performance, the choir will invite a Celtic band and dancers to celebrate its 35 years with an old-fashioned Gaelic Ceilidh June 19 at Country Heritage Park. The audience will be asked to join in with the dancing, and lessons will be held in advance. There will also be a silent auction.

Tickets are available from Delacourt's on Main Street and the Paper Zone at Milton Mall. For more information, call (905) 876-3203 or visit www.miltonchoristers.com.
