Authentic Italian style and taste at Stecchino's Italian Eatery

Joseph Manchisi, part owner with his wife Christine, is a native of Bari, Italy. Joseph designed this restaurant and menu to reflect a real authentic style and taste that no other restaurant in this area has. The interior of the restaurant has been hand muralled by local well known artist Richard Posa, and gives the feeling of relaxing on an outdoor patio overlooking possibly somewhere on the Italian Amalfi Coastline. The special touches, such as the real masks from carnival in Venice, the Blue Marlin on the Wall (Yes, it is real!), and the mirror in the ladies room that contains 4,018 gold metal buttons add to the restaurant's already unique appeal and ambience.

The food is designed to bring forth authentic Italian quality, taste, flair, and style. Spaghetti and meatballs, this is not. THIS IS ITALIAN! The pasta and herbs used are all fresh and not dried. The sauces are a carefully selected blend of fresh herbs, wines and other ingredients that are sure to please any palate.

The menu is a selection of fine Italian thin crust pizzas, pasta dishes, and a variety of meat and seafood dishes, with daily food and wine specials.

We are open everyday for breakfast, lunch and dinner, and also offer full service off-site catering for any occasion, for any number of guests.
