

New book published on boys' reading problems

Tracey Wood has had a big year. Four months ago, she moved to the Milton area and two months after that, she became an author, having her first book, See Johnny Read, published by McGraw-Hill.

Although it took a while to appear in some stores, See Johnny Read arrived November 1 at Coles bookstore at Milton Mall.

The book retails for $19.95. The book's subtitle says it all — The 5 Most Effective Ways to End Your Son's Reading Problems.

The book tackles questions such as: When does a reading delay become a reading problem?

Is reading harder for boys?

What kind of help works best for boys?

Ms Wood said the book provides parents with information from educational studies and presents it in easy-to-read, practical terms.

Ms Wood, a former school teacher, said her life has been a whirlwind lately.

She has been travelling across the GTA giving talks to parents and teachers about how to help boys gain interest in reading and what can be done to ensure their success.

She has also been doing radio interviews and has been profiled in several newspapers.

The reaction to the book has been extremely positive, Ms Wood said.

She's even been deemed the 'angel from heaven' by one happy mom whose son benefited from Ms Wood's techniques.
